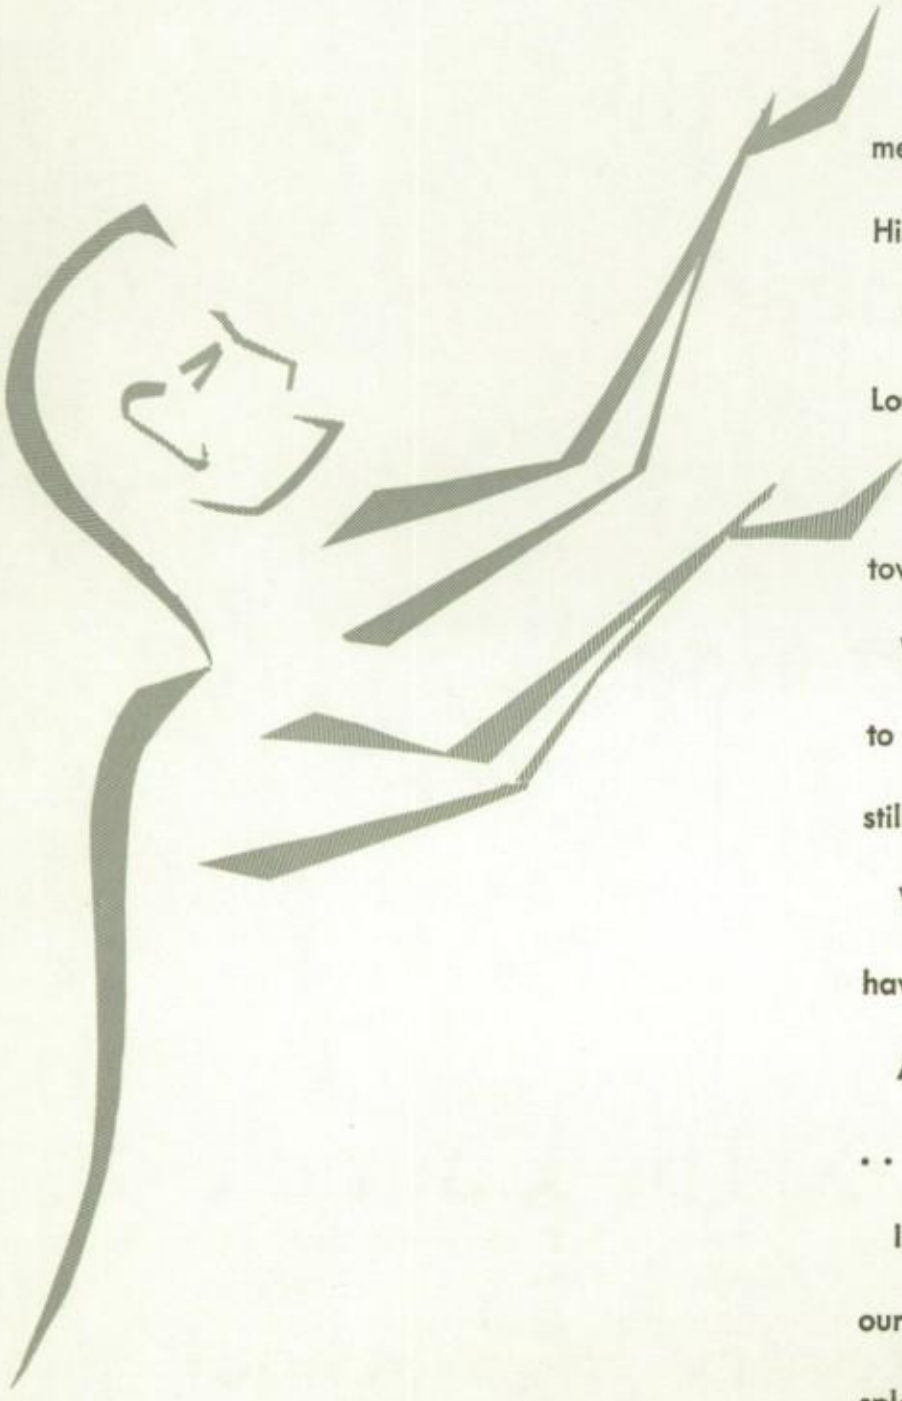
The Canticle

of Rosary High School

The Canticle,

a song of praise to God . . .



Our world has known God's goodness from its earliest youth. Every age boasts of close friends of God, who, in moments of ecstatic joy, pour forth the gratitude filling their hearts in strikingly beautiful language. These songs of God's servants are called the Canticles.

We should like to join our voices to those of the valiant men and women of times past, for we, too, are recipients of His favors and know the joy of living in and for Him.

With Moses, we sing of a strong God: "How magnificient, Lord, is the strength of Thy right hand."

With Tobias, we praise a merciful God: " . . . He will turn towards you, and hide His face no more."

With Ezechias, a faithful God: " . . . pass on from father to son the story of thy faithfulness . . . the Lord is my Saviour still; while life lasts . . . "

With Jeremy, a generous God: "Blessings My people shall have till they ask no more."

And with Anna, a holy God: "My hearts thrills with joy . . . who is so holy as the Lord?"

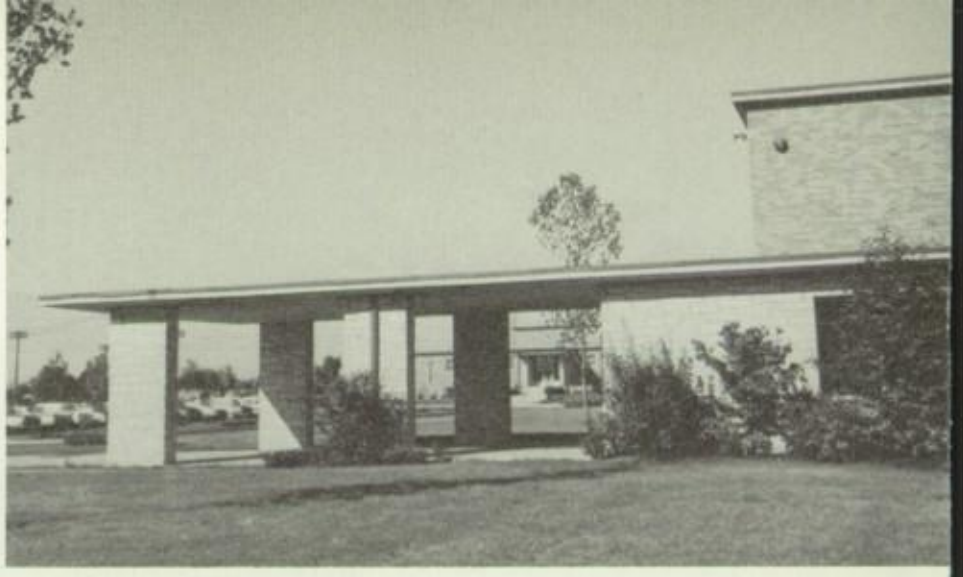
In the hymn of David, the prince of cantors, we extol our Creator: "Thine Lord, the magnificence, Thine the power; splendour and glory and majesty are Thine . . . To thee then, we pay homage this day, to Thy glorious Name bring renown."

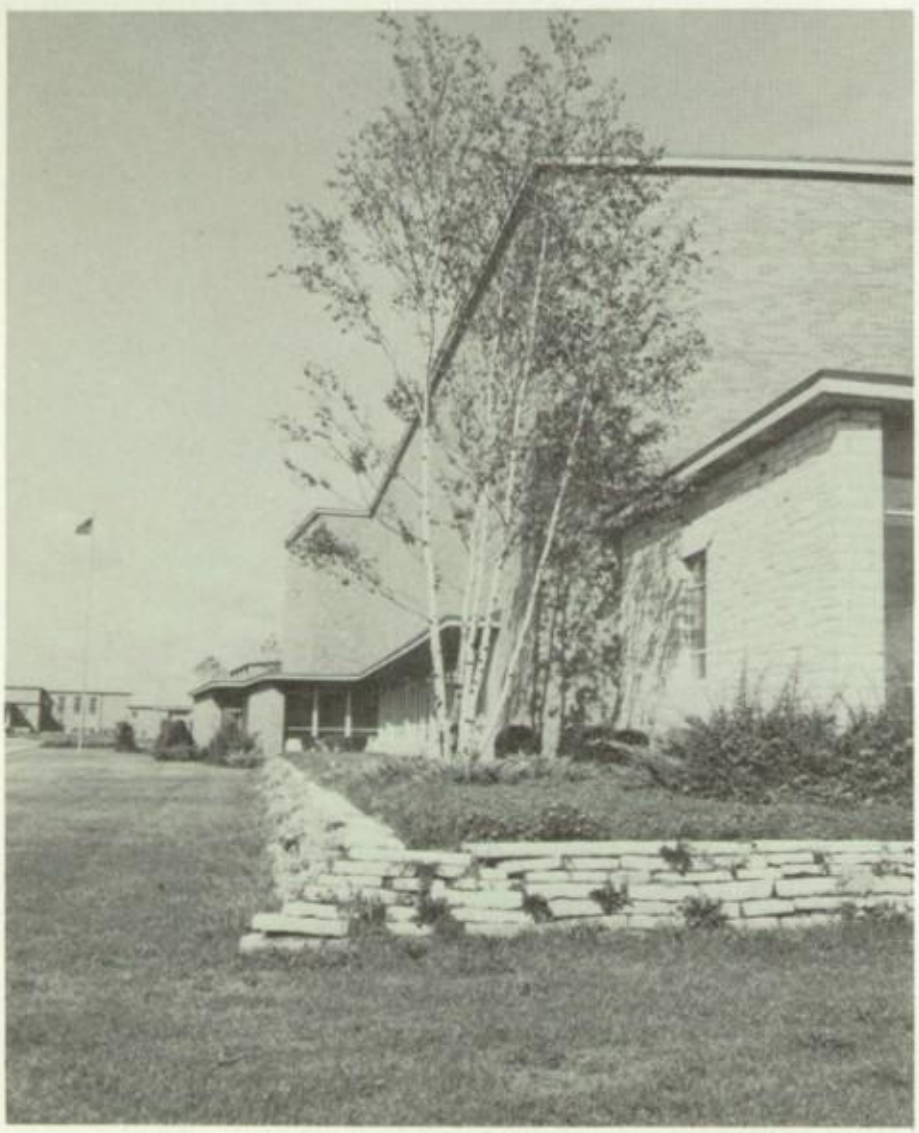
Our song is the echo of ancient ages . . .

Dedicated to Sister Mary Philip, O. P.

Reflecting upon those who have brought renown to God's name in the past, we look about us for a twentieth century counterpart. We find that the search ends quickly, for in our principal, Sister Mary Philip, we see one who exemplifies so very many of the fine qualities of God's friends of earlier ages. As a mother guides her family from childhood to maturity, so Sister leads the Rosary girls of today to the womanhood of tomorrow. She teaches with strength and purpose and guides with love and patience.

To you, Sister Mary Philip, our leader and guardian, we dedicate this, our Canticle, in the hope that it may convey our deepest appreciation and gratitude — gratitude not only for doing the things that you do, but for being the person you are — a truly dedicated servant of God.



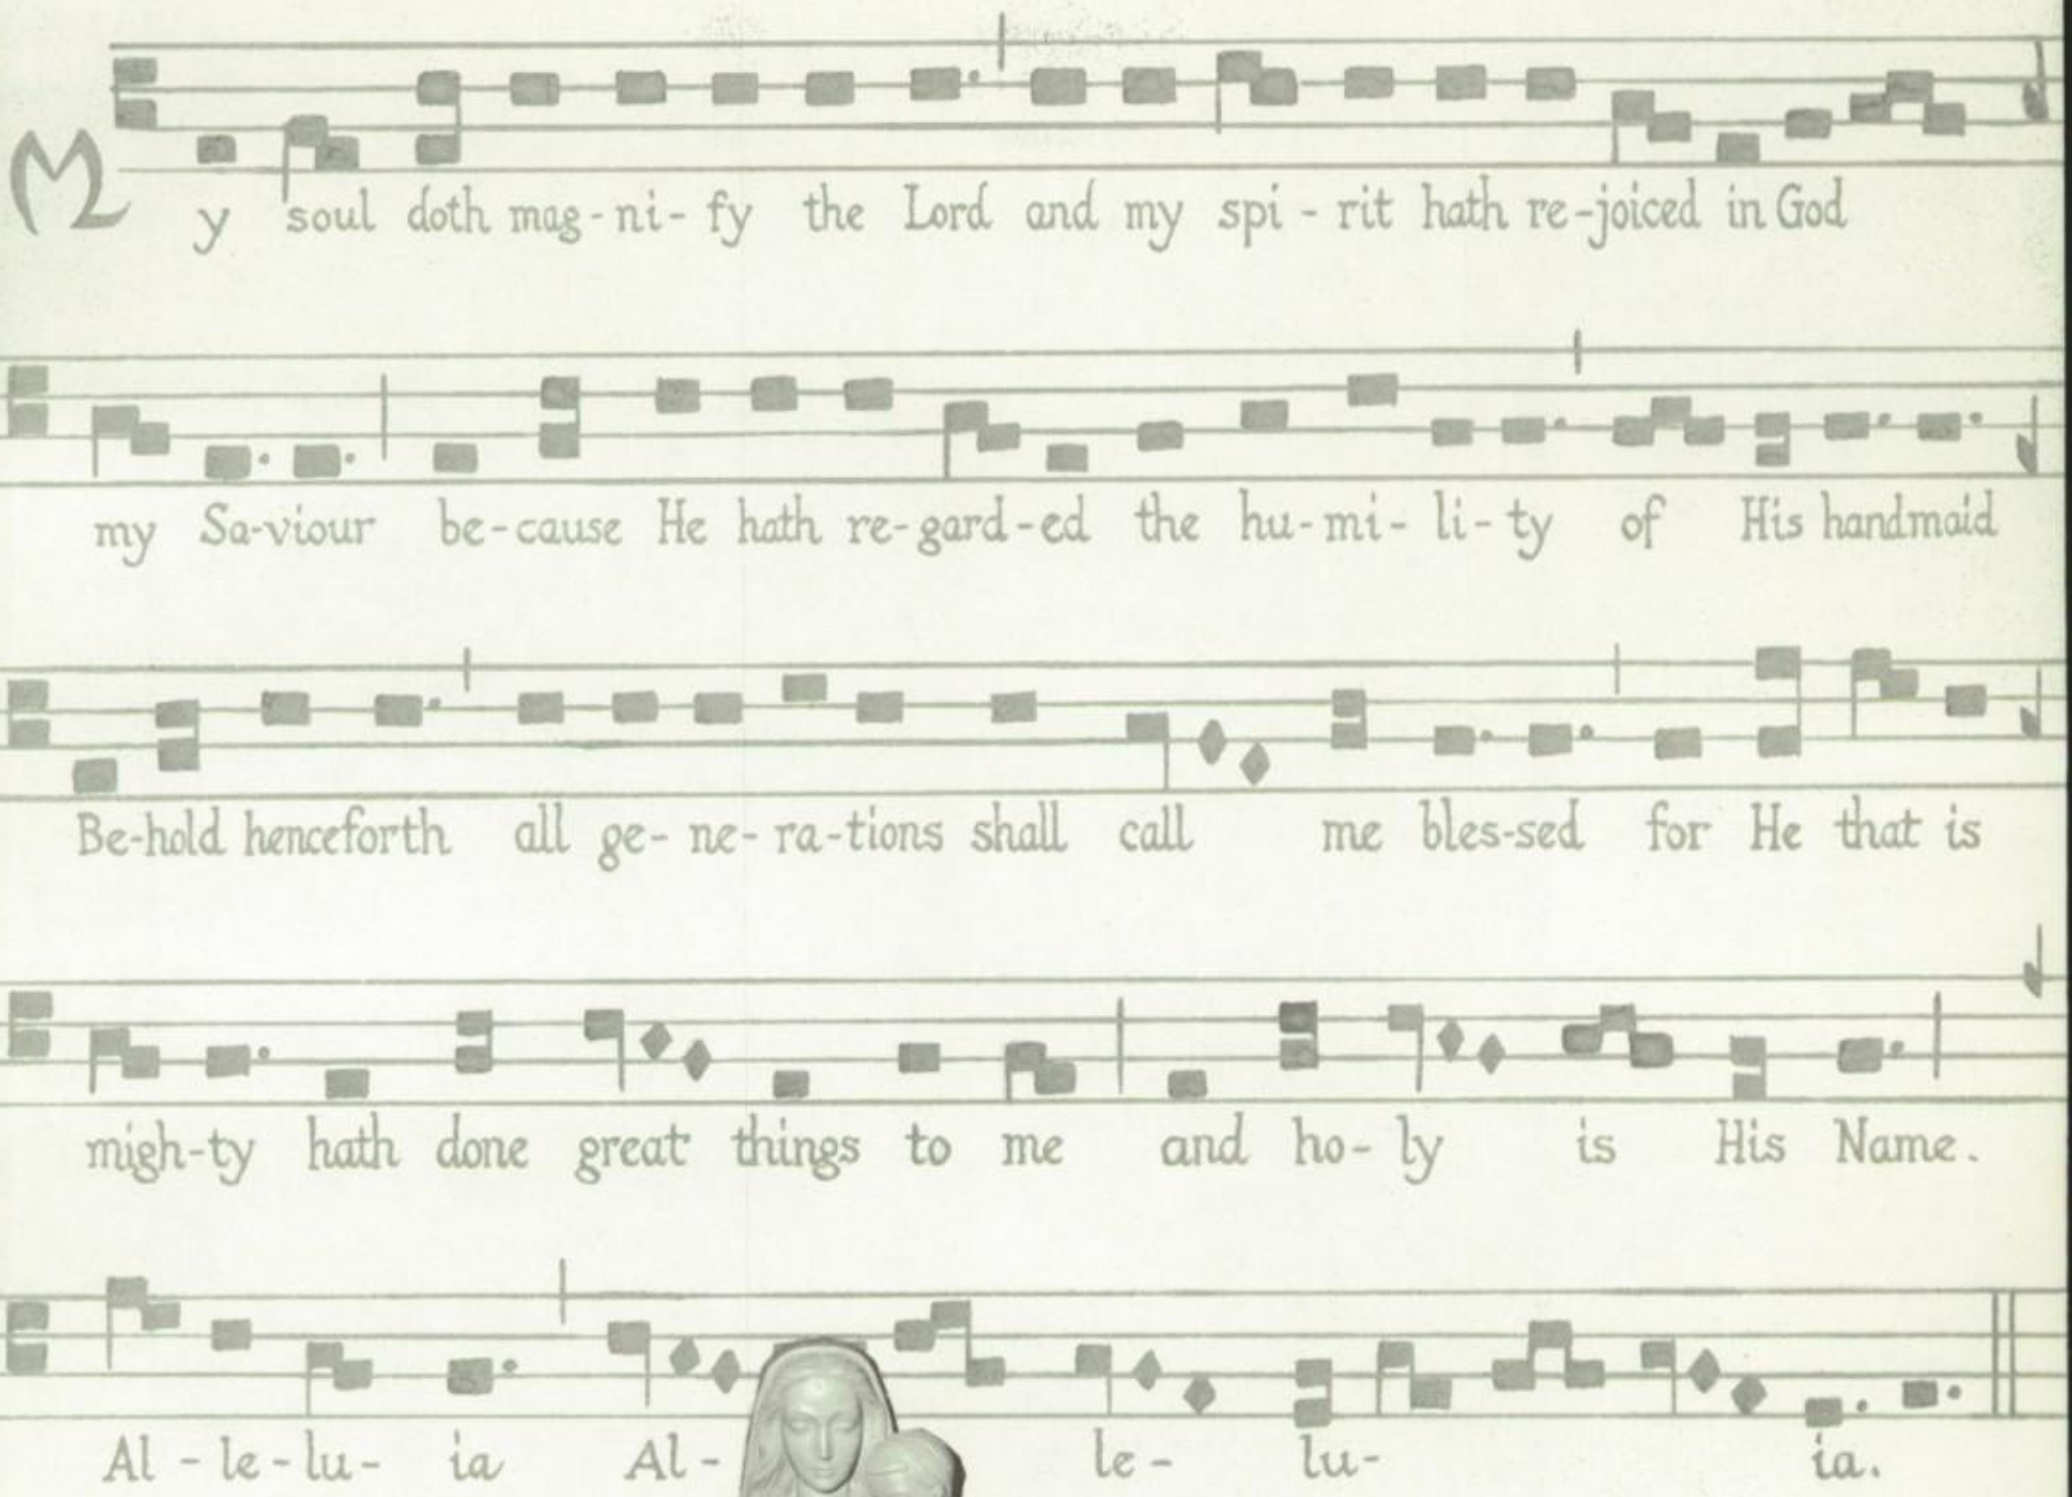


A CANTICLE OF THANKSGIVING TO GOD FOR STRENGTH ADDED TO BEAUTY

This school owes its foundation to two inspired educators: His Eminence Edward Cardinal Mooney and the Reverend Mother Mary Gerald, O.P., Mother General of the Sisters of St. Dominic, Adrian. Its remarkable achievements have come from the magnificence of Faculty and students. Together they have given spirit to vigorous growth.

On the feast of All Saints, November 1, 1956, His Eminence dedicated this school to God under the patronage of Our Lady Queen of the Most Holy Rosary. On this occasion, hundreds of priests, sisters, and parents were present with 300 freshmen to hear the Cardinal's prophetic words: "I wonder what we are going to do when we get four years of students!" Rosary has passed this day. Now in its fifth year, it is functioning beyond its space. "The wilderness has blossomed and flourished." (Isaias)

Mother Mary Gerald, educator of educators, has taught the members of the Faculty to surrender all in love that the Rosary girl may be prepared for both a living and a life. Parents of Rosary girls have sacrificed with great hearts to equip this handsome school with all requirements for accreditation with the State and the North Central Association. Scholarships, achievements, honors, victories have abounded with the efforts of the students. Thus this canticle of praise and thanksgiving is offered to God, Who has wrought these wonders.



My soul doth mag-ni-fy the Lord and my spi-rit hath re-joiced in God my Sa-viour be-cause He hath re-gard-ed the hu-mi-li-ty of His handmaid Be-hold henceforth all ge-ne-ra-tions shall call me bles-sed for He that is migh-ty hath done great things to me and ho-ly is His Name.
Al-le-lu-ia Al- le- lu- ia.

Queen of the Holy Rosary, patroness of our school, share with us its memories and ask Him, Who once regarded your humility, to accept our praise and to hear our Canticle.

Leadership

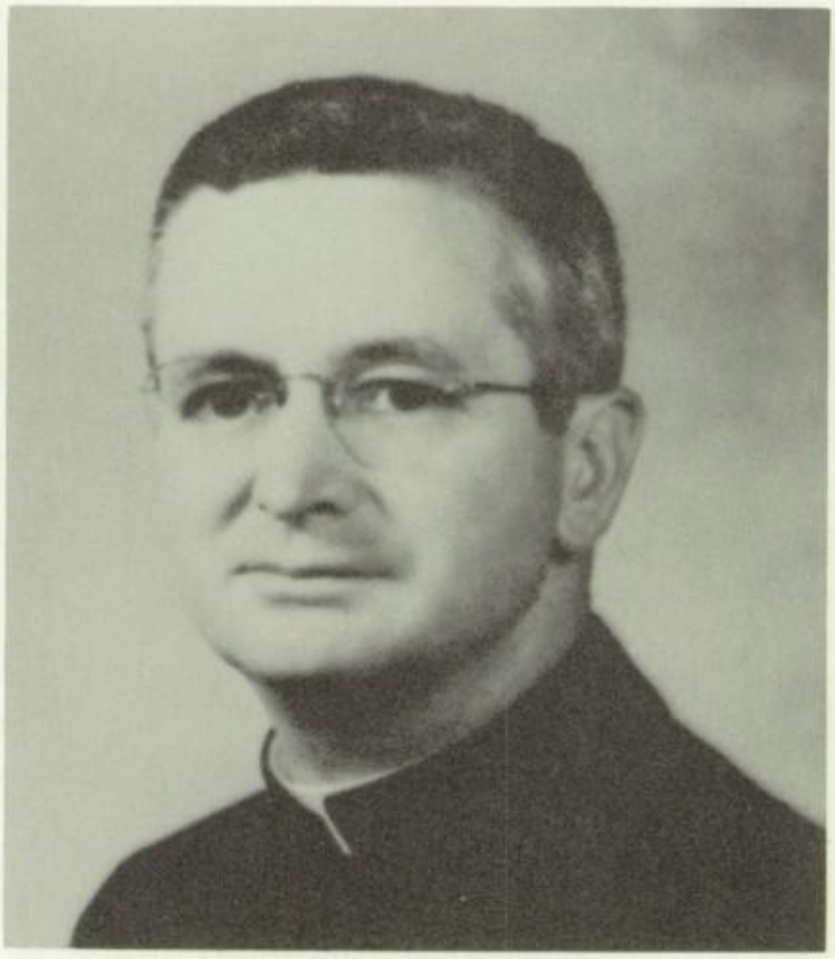
The Most Reverend John F. Dearden
Archbishop of Detroit

Archbishop Dearden, revered for his prudent direction, exercises the authority of Christ with the wisdom and holiness of one who has truly attained the fullness of the priesthood.

"Source of my strength, tower of my defense, the Lord has made Himself my protector."

Leadership, loving and prudent, is ever reliant upon the strength of God. Our prelates and priests, our faculty and fellow students who govern and guide, inspire and instruct, look to Him, Who is the Source of their song.

Bless the Lord,
ye priests of the Lord . . .



Very Reverend Vincent J. Horkan

Superintendent of Schools
Archdiocese of Detroit

Monsignor Horkan's dignity and understanding have provided superior leadership for the Catholic schools of Detroit.

praise Him and exalt Him above all forever.

—Canticle of the Three Youths

Reverend Thomas A. McAnoy

Chaplain
Rosary High School

Whether at the altar, in the confessional, or at the classroom lectern, Father McAnoy spends himself generously in his priestly duties. His presence always affords a happy blend of deep thought and warm humor.

"The chief task of the high school is to equip the student with a developed ability to learn on his own.
Not every citizen,
to be sure, needs to be a discoverer of new truth -

research is the task of special professions;
but every citizen
must be able,
without the formal
and immediate direction of a teacher, to make use of the knowledge already acquired by society.

Otherwise
he will not be able to enlarge the fixed content
of his high school education, nor to sift truth from falsehood
in the things he hears and reads."

—Benedict Ashley, O.P.

In Memoriam

Sister Margaret Cecile, O.P.

With the death of Sister Margaret Cecile last July, each of us at Rosary lost an inspiring teacher and friend. Having eagerly accepted Christ's special invitation, Sister offered Him thirty-two years of loving service, many of which were spent graciously and generously in the Detroit area. Sister taught in our neighboring cities, Chelsea and Adrian. She spent six years as principal of Saint Joseph High School, Saint Joseph, Michigan, and shouldered further administrative responsibilities as superioress of Bishop O'Dowd High School, Oakland, California. Those of us who were fortunate enough to work under Sister's direction knew her to be well qualified in many fields, especially in Latin and music. We miss Sister Margaret Cecile and feel keenly the loss of her dynamic influence and wholesome companionship. Yet we rejoice that she has been chosen to go before us, to sing our canticle in the presence of God.

PRAYER

We beseech Thee, O Lord, by Thy loving kindness, to have mercy on the soul of Thy handmaid, Sister Margaret Cecile, and now that she is released from the contagion of this mortal flesh, to give her part in Thine eternal salvation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Sisters of Saint Dominic dedicate themselves

Sister Rose Ann, O.P.

Assistant Principal

Well-known and appreciated for her kindness to all and for her ever-ready wit, Sister Rose Ann offers us willing assistance and attention when we are in need.

to the guidance of youth through the teaching of truth.

Sister Mary Laetitia, O.P.

Counselor

Rosary girls consider themselves privileged, indeed, to have in their midst Sister Mary Laetitia, an experienced educator in the field of guidance and counseling. Sister's interviews always prove to be profitable and inspiring.

f-r-f . . . d-e-d . . . juj . . . Sister Lourdes doesn't seem to mind the music of the typewriters. On the contrary, she seems pleased with the progress of Mademoiselle Typist, who exhibits speed and accuracy.

Father Joseph, whose kindness and gentleness are indeed Christlike, has begun a new program of Christian doctrine.

Those of us who have studied with Sister Charles Marie know well that she doesn't need to rely on that open text for her interesting presentations in Latin or history.

Theirs is a life

A smile like this from Sister James Noreen indicates real triumph. Her typing class must have reached the coveted fifty-words-per-minute — and no errors!

Smile and the world smiles with you; iron and you iron alone. However, Sister Frances Anthony doesn't seem to mind.

Sister Robert Mary demonstrates to her American History students that some segment of the country is now ready for admission to the Union. Sister seems to rejoice in the good fortune of these people.

Sister Vincella discusses a recent scientific television broadcast. Sister seems well satisfied as she observes the number of her budding scientists who viewed it with enthusiastic enjoyment.

Sister Rose Terrence enjoys a selection with her senior English class. Vitality and enthusiasm permeate all of Sister's work, be it the teaching of literature, speech or grammar.

Judging by Sister Siena's smile, her very favorite pastime must be teaching history. No doubt the golden age of some country is the topic right now.

of prayer and fruitful activity

as envisioned by Saint Dominic.

As the photographer catches Sister Noreen Marie enroute to her Latin scholars, her pleasant expression and that Sunday Visitor she holds so securely indicate that she's just enjoyed an interesting period with her religion class.

The intricacies of the slide rule cause Sister Judith Mary no trouble whatever. The big smile helps to convince her math class that is really isn't so hard as it looks.

Sister Margaret James has just inspected something that meets with her approval. Was it student art work, Canticle photography, or an essay on O. Henry?

"Success at last," says Sister Monica Mary's broad smile, often exhibited in her daily English classes.

Good teachers should have perfect human formation, intellectual and moral. For the teaching office is a lofty position that calls for intellectual discernment and for goodness of heart, for a capacity for intuition and delicacy of spirit, for adaptability and adjustment as well as human depth, capable of bearing all for love of neighbor.

Sister Mary Norita is obviously pleased at the response of her history class to one of her controversial questions.

As Sister Assissium tends the tape recorder to enrich more appreciation of Shakespeare, her intense expression betrays the fact that it's a tragedy, not comedy, which is the subject at present.

To praise, to bless, to preach --- in these three

Sister Anne Celeste explains the intricacies of an experiment in chemistry. When Sister does it, nothing explodes!

The expression on Sister Rose Constance's face could mean satisfaction with next week's menu or plans for her latest Latin exam.

"How does this look?" asks Sister Rudolf as she takes a few minutes out of her busy schedule to add that certain touch to her classroom.

Sister Arthur Marie has shown her dynamic spirit in every phase of school life, be it Beowulf, debating, or judging the new cheerleaders.

Sister Christine Marie, librarian, is always busy binding books, typing, or rearranging the card catalogue for our convenience.

With Sister Jane Anne officiating in the kitchen, the Sisters are sure of "having their cake and eating it, too." M-m-m-good!

our faculty fulfills the apostolic ideal of Saint Dominic.

If your head is bothered with an insoluble problem in math or an impossible experiment in science, Sister Rose Concepta is one whom you'd like to meet. Sister's rich experience and interest in each of her pupils have come to the aid of many a struggling student.

Why the big smile? . . . Sister Richard Patrice's students have finally learned that "All Gaul is divided into three part . . . "

We have a treat in store as Sister Rose Clare prepares to make the organ speak.

If history is your favorite, Sister Francis Irene has an inviting smile and a treasury of topics to discuss.

Be it church history, geometry or biology, Sister Patricia Ann always has a stimulating question to provoke thought and discussion.

Sister Francis Gerald's vivid presentation of American history inspires her students with a love of country and a devotion to its welfare which should characterize every good citizen.

Rosary girls who intend to spend future years as secretaries or office workers of any sort, receive helpful instruction from Sister Marie James.

YOUR TASK IS FAR MORE STRENUOUS, FAR LESS EASY. IT IS TO STORE THE MIND WITH KNOWLEDGE, TO EXAMINE KNOWLEDGE ACQUIRED, TO EXTEND IT, TO ADVANCE THE LEARNING WHICH IS IN YOUR PARTICULAR SPHERE. —Pope Pius XII

When Sister Marie Virginia is not in evidence, you will probably find her tucked away in the journalism room proofreading copy for the next Diadem; that is, if she's not working on an original manuscript or deeply involved in one of her English classes.

"That was better, girls. Let's try it just once more," encourages Sister Josepha, as she accompanies her choral group and helps them to interpret a number in her original and beautiful style.

Miss Davis, Rosary's physical education instructor, does not confine her activities to the gym, but radiates her generous spirit everywhere and to all who come in contact with her.

"But in Latin, farmer and sailor are feminine," Sister Christa patiently explains to her Freshman language students.

Class and Student Council Officers

It is not at all surprising that the class of '61 has met with such success in all its ventures when we consider the capable leadership of Nickola Richmond, Pat Molloy, Mildred Szymanski, Diana Zyskowski and Bernice Sulak, senior class officers.

The Juniors have wisely entrusted the planning and problems of their class activities to officers Carol Nowak, Karen Fitzgerald, Carol Hunciak, Carol Dudzinski and Arlene Strom.

"THE CHRISTIAN, IF HE IS TO LIVE UP TO HIS NAME, CAN NEVER CEASE TO BE AN APOSTLE; FOR CHRIST'S SOLDIERS, THERE IS NO DROPPING OUT OF THE RANKS; ONLY DEATH PUTS AN END TO OUR SHARE IN THE CAMPAIGN."

—Romano Guardini

The Sophomores surely proved themselves more wise than foolish in their selection of Sharon Cloutier, Marjorie Oller, Carole Reppa, Gayle Bennett and Judy Shannon as class officers for the 1960-61 school year.

Student Council officers Patricia McKanna, Sandra Hanak, Marylyn Kaltz, Dolores Larys and Carol Julien share the many and varied responsibilities of student administration.

Dedicated Debaters

Another victory, another trophy! Diane Zyskowski and Regina Stefaniak display a new debating award as Carol Hunciak watches and admires.

"The business of the debater is honestly to make out the best possible case
for the side assigned him, in order that the truth can be seen."—Benedict Ashley, O.P.

"Affirmative? Oh no! My notes are all negative!" A small example of the trials and tribulations bravely faced each day by the Rosary debaters in this predicament.

"Debating provides mental stimulation and the thrill of research and preparation," proves Sister Arthur Marie as she assists the Freshman and Sophomore debaters in preparing their case.

Sister Mary Philip, through her knowledge and understanding of the difficult but exciting work of the debaters, helps the girls improve their techniques.

"The important thing is not that we win, but that we participate well." This is the philosophy taught the debaters by Sister Mary Philip. And participate well this season they did, bringing home 32 victories out of 38 debates.

A non-disputed fact: resolved that Carol Dudzinski, Eileen Doyle, Regina Stefaniak, Diana Zyskowski, Carole Reppa and Patricia McKanna are among Rosary's top debaters!

The debaters of Rosary High assemble to formulate, discuss, and solve any problems that might arise in their debating activities.

Our fate is being determined as Rosary's debaters resolve that saddle shoes should be abolished. But Sister's shoes as a substitue? Oh-h-h-h ! !

Under the guidance of Sister Rudolf, the members of the Communism Study Group, Patricia Rochon, Julie Jackson, Mary White, Patricia Ruddell, Janet Ross and Birute Sileika realize that the most powerful weapon against Communism is the knowledge of this menace.

"What can I do to combat democracy's number one enemy?" This is just one of the many questions discussed by the Communism Study Group, composed of (seated) Sandra Karnafel, Kathleen Glasser, Joan Mydlarz, Donna Kleszcz, Audrey Franko, Mary Tuckett and (standing) Mary White, Gayle Bennett, Sandra Fox and Arlene Strom.

The Mothers Club Meets

Cheerleading officers Margaret Rugenski, Dianne Dudenhoefer and Beverly Bankowski lead the Pep Club with a wholesome vitality and spirit, which cannot help but cheer their Alma Mater on to victory.

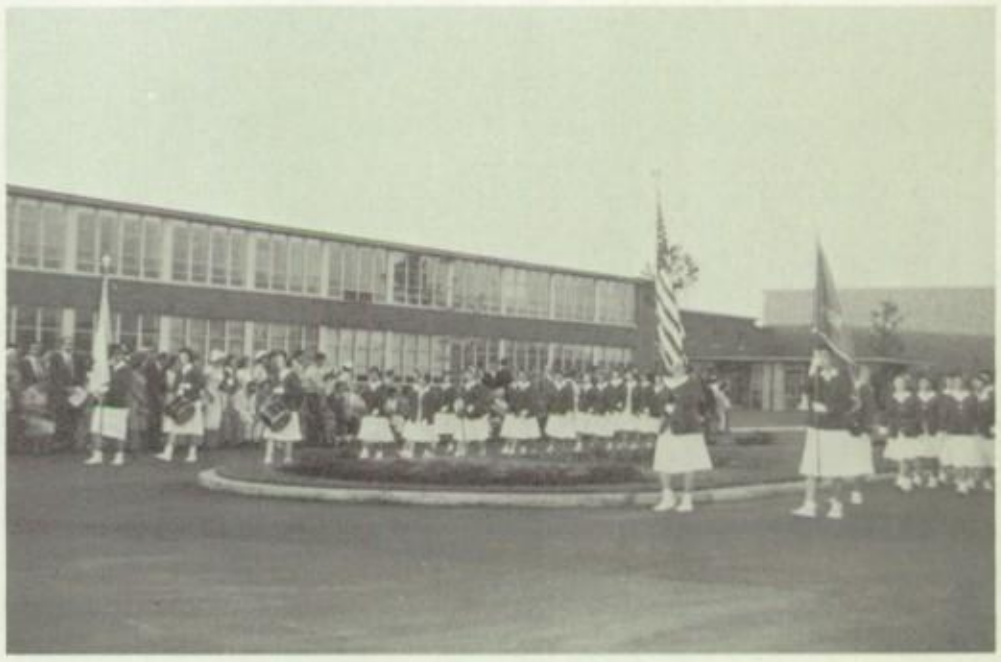
"Let's have a swinging cheer!" Rosary's reserve cheerleaders boost everyone's morale as they lead this encouraging chorus.



Performing before the assembled throng, Rosary's drill team is always "in step" for promoting school spirit in the finest fashion.

"Three strikes and you're in!" Joyce Comai, Jo Ann De Oro and Shirley Billmeyer, officers of Rosary's Bowling Club, discuss the technique of boosting one's average.

"Let's boost that score!" Rosary's cheerleaders are a lively addition to these exciting basketball activities.

The teacher is essential in the preservation of our country because she brings about desirable changes in the thinking habits of her pupils.

Sister Alice Joseph, faculty member of Siena Heights College, answers the inquiries of the potential teachers gathered to hear her speak on Siena Heights Day at Rosary.

Biology? English? Math? Officers of the Future Teachers' Club, Barbara Swift, Susanne Hansen, Aurelia Zaydel and members Louise Breidenich, Rosemary Benivegna, and Adele Sobania discuss the many fields to which their profession may lead them.

Diane Krolik, president of Rosary's branch of the National Honor Society, represents the high standards of the organization in all phases of scholastic life.

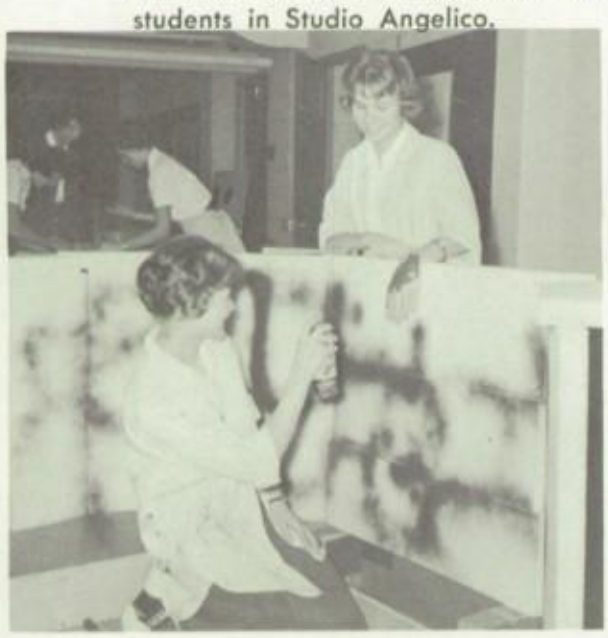
"An apple for the teacher . . . " Officers Aurelia Zaydel, Barbara Swift, and Susanne Hansen, representing Rosary's Future Teachers' Club, eagerly plan for the day when they will step into the classroom and take their places — on the other side of the desk.

"Every man is the painter and sculptor of his own life."

—Saint John Chrysostom

With the help of the slide projector, Sister Joannes shows those Rosary girls interested in the field of art some examples of the beautiful work executed by Siena Heights students in Studio Angelico.

Any elephant would be proud to own the genuine counterfeit tusks that Catherine Mc Vicker and Juliana Papp construct as props for the African dance.



Mary Lou Schuck seems undecided about that final touch, but Judi Tomoff suggests a perfect spot for some added artistry.

"Busy hands make light work." This old adage may easily be applied to Carol Batura and Bonnie Jenkins as they prepare Christmas play scenery.

Pre-viewers of Book Fair titles are Marie Vihonsky, Patricia Magon and Sandra Dobson. Their enthusiasm proved contagious, as the student body flocked to the Fair.

There's no joy like the joy of accomplishment! Joan Thompson, senior art student, unveils her masterpiece to Sister Margaret James and fellow art students Judith Garver, Sue Groat, and Judith Tomoff.

Catholic Students' Mission Crusade

"Whatever you do to the least of these, My brethren . . . " Many of the less fortunate members of Christ have profited from the hard work and generosity of Mission Club members, led this year by officers Beverly Owens, Claudia Nowak, Julie Jackson, and Mary White.

"5001, 5002, 5003 . . ." These members of the Mission Club, despite serious faces, enjoy sorting and counting stamps from "far away places with strange-sounding names."

"Words often deceive but deeds show the reality of love."

—Saint Catherine of Siena

Sister Mary Rudolf examines the shining medal which she received from the Knights of the Paladin for her outstanding work as a moderator in the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade.

Typical of the missioners supported by the prayers and monetary contributions of members of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade is this Scarboro priest, Father Ralph Williams. Father is shown here with some of his parishioners, performing in their Nagasaki parish in full dress costume.

The yearbook staff struggles to meet its deadline. Looks like they did, since you're reading it!

Canticle editor Christine Knight and Barbara Dixon, co-editor, smile with satisfaction and relief now that all dummies and deadlines are things of the past and the finished product is on the market.

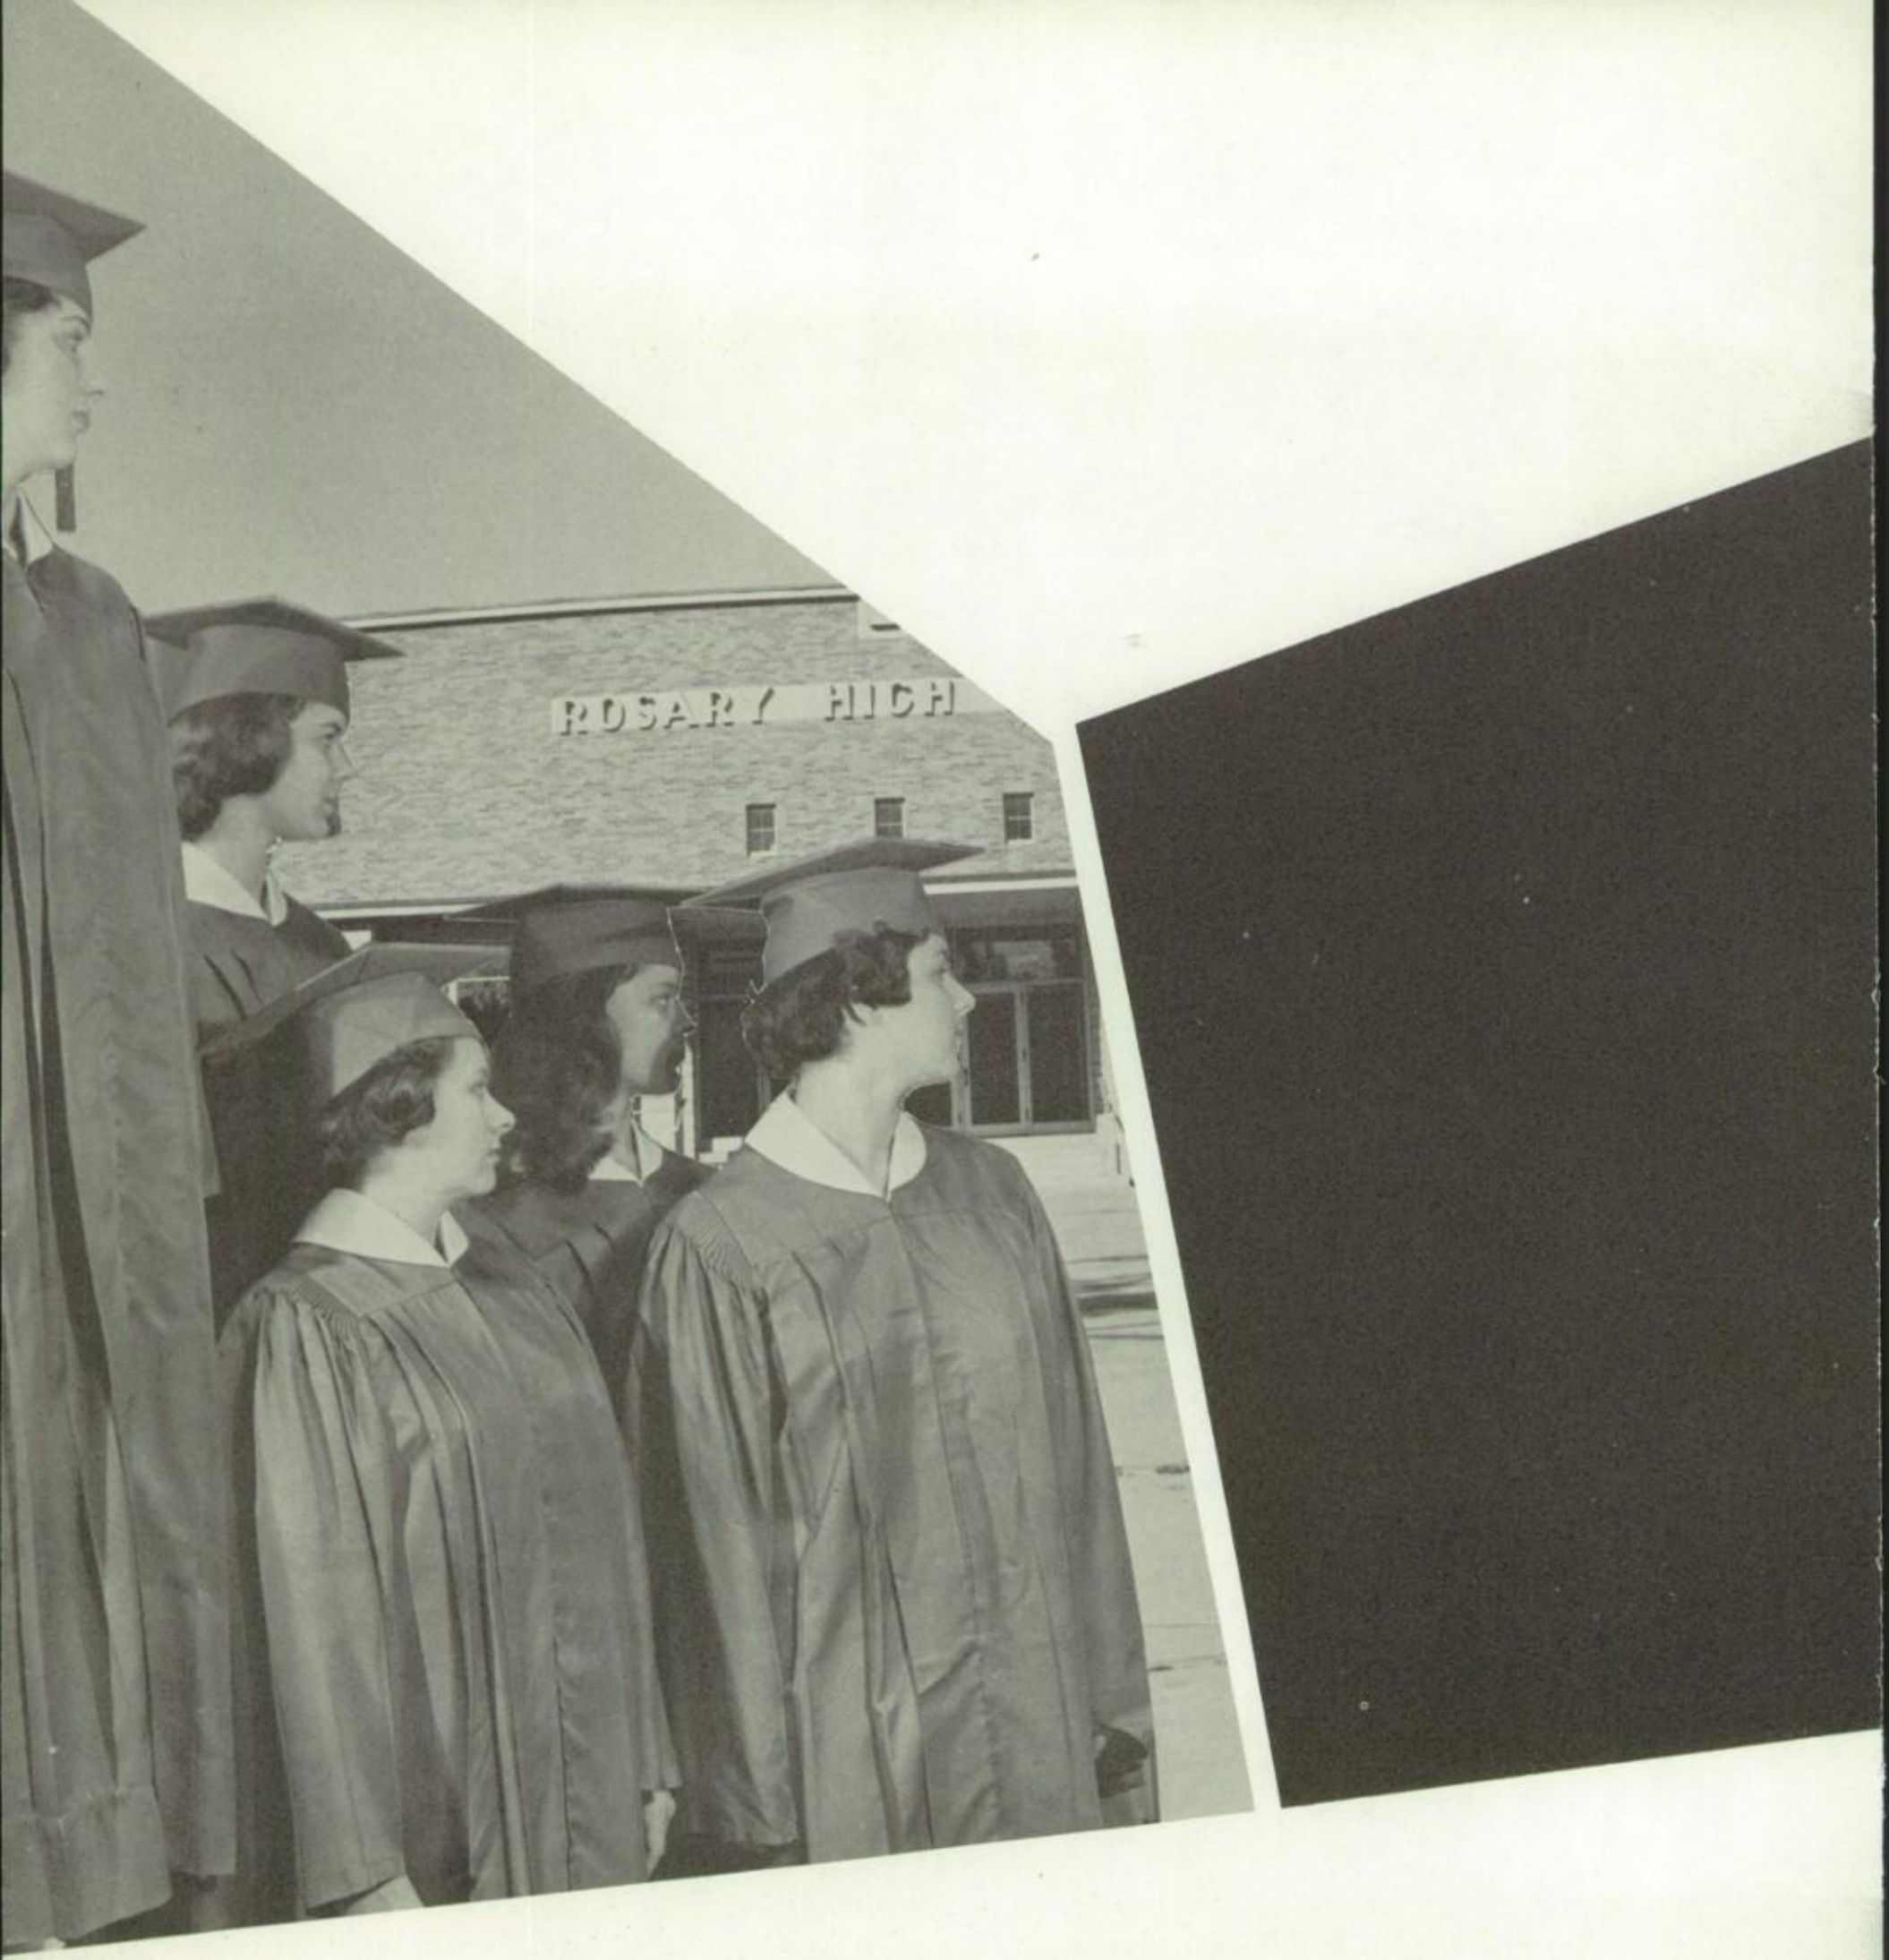
The Yearbook and Newspaper Staffs at Work

The Canticle Staff sets a deadline and works toward that goal, while Sister Margaret James urges better copy and more unique layout. Nodding approval are Sister Monica Mary, Co-editor Barbara Dixon, Layout Editor Carol Batura and Editor Christine Knight.

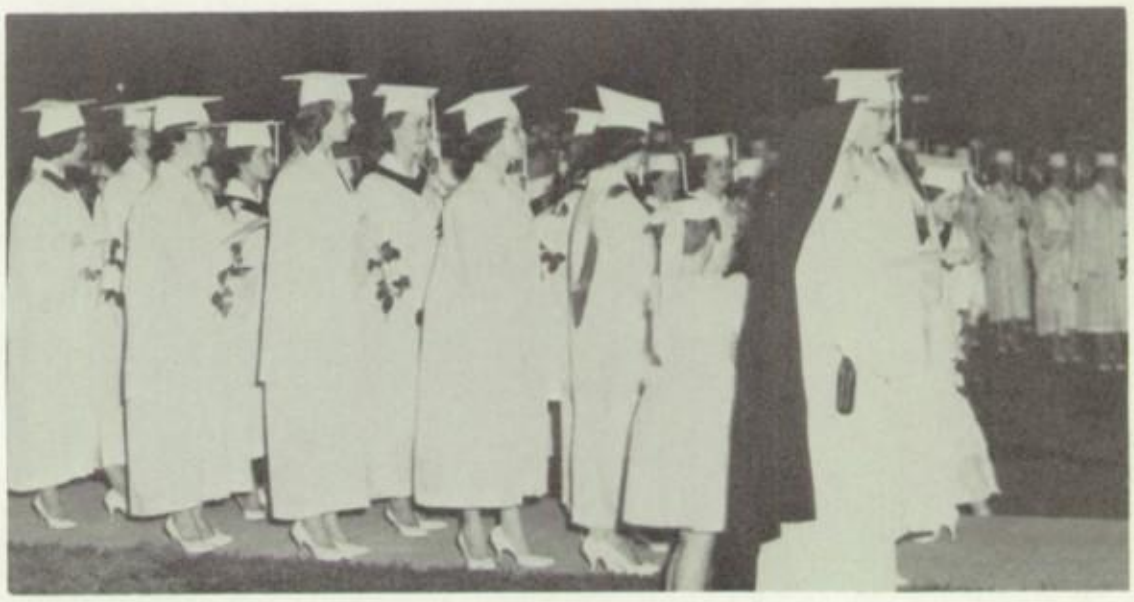
"Page three will need revising," points out Kay Sullivan to fellow Diadem members, Joyce Tifft, Marie Vihonsky, and Elsie Brake, who prepare to suggest new layout ideas.

Diadem staff members Nickola Richmond, Kay Sullivan, Karen Fitzgerald, Pat Magon and Marie Vihonsky are ever alert to report the "goings on" in and around Rosary. Beware! You may find your casual conversations in print.

The Journalism room is the scene of busy activity for Diadem staff members when the latest issue arrives. Colleen McGinnity, Donna Purcell, Karen Fitzgerald, Pat Magon and Nickola Richmond use available free moments to count and prepare copies for homeroom distribution.



Graduates



"Only come back to Him, with heart and soul giving Him unfeigned service . . . think, what blessings He has in store for you . . . chant in His honor, King of all the ages." Ours is a song of gratitude. We give thanks for the goodness, truth and beauty which we have known and shared at Rosary. We are grateful, too, for the opportunities which face us now. Having walked close to Christ these four lovely years, we hope ever to remain in His presence.

Character

"Riches and honour come from Thee; all things obey Thy will; from Thee power comes and dominion; only Thy hand exalts, only Thy hand makes strong."

We would nourish the seeds of goodness planted within us by nature and strive for womanly qualities even when mastery is hard and slow. Singing happily as we advance along our way, we build strong character without fear, for God's hand is our support.

"Carry Christ in your mind by His teachings,
in your will by the observance of His law,
in your heart by the Holy Eucharist." —Pope Pius XII

Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament takes one back in imagination to the hills of Galilee, where our Divine Lord lifted His sacred hands to bless His followers.

Holy Mass, offered on our auditorium altar, is not merely another activity sandwiched into a busy schedule; it is the act of the day, supplying the spiritual strength vital to happy, successful living.

"TO BE A FOLLOWER OF CHRIST DOES NOT MEAN TO IMITATE HIM LITERALLY, BUT TO EXPRESS HIM THRU THE MEDIUM OF ONE'S OWN LIFE . . . THE TASK OF THE CHRISTIAN CONSISTS OF TRANSPOSING CHRIST INTO THE STUFF OF HIS OWN EXISTENCE."

—Romano Guardini

The ancient chants of the Church, retaining all their original beauty and purity are brought to the twentieth century as the Rosary student body joins in praising God.

Senior Ring Day

Speaking for the Senior class on ring day, Diana Zyskowski extends warm thanks to the willing Sophomores for their traditional Senior breakfast.

Every Senior treasurers her shiny new ring to an even greater degree after Father McAnoy, addressing the student body, explains its beautiful symbolism.

On Ring Day, as Rosary's Seniors receive Christ in His sacrament of love, they ask His help to remain ever-faithful to the ideals set before them by their Alma Mater.

Seniors already! Ring day brings a touch of nostalgia to the class of '61. Christine Knight, Eileen Clancy, Carolyn Roman and other classmates enjoy the recollection of the squeaky white saddles, too-big uniforms and the first horrible quarterly exams of four years ago, at the Sophomore-hostessed breakfast following the ceremonies.

"Your years at Rosary . . . " Sharon Cloutier, Sophomore class president, relives for the Seniors the activities and events of the past four years at the traditional Ring Day breakfast.

The Sodality of Our Lady

The 1960-61 scholastic year has been especially fruitful for Our Lady's Sodalists. Officers Carol Julien, Jean McCann, Catherine McGuire, Christine Campbell and Marthanne Boyer have worked together enthusiastically to provide opportunities for all members to reach Christ through Mary and to carry Him to the world.

Legion of Mary members Gail Kelly, Carol Gancer, Carol Laichalk, Margaret Landini, Ellen Farrell, Judy Capozzoli, Karen Cummings and Mary Lou Heiler, as twentieth-century apostles of Our Lady, strive for personal holiness and the spiritual betterment of their neighbor.

and the Legion of Mary

Looking for inspiration in booklet form? Sodality officers Catherine McGuire, Jean McCann, Christine Campbell, Carol Julien, and Marthanne Boyer offer the solution at one of the many pamphlet racks available throughout the school.

Sister Anne Celeste's Senior Religion class conducts a panel on interracial problems. Mariam Piekarz gives her opinion of what the teenager can do to foster better human realtions.

"Satan is powerless against the heart that lives in humility and truth." —Romano Guardini

There's music in the air! Concerts, assemblies, and plays are among the many functions at which Rosary's orchestra displays its talents.

Moments of Music

The walls of this little room listen daily as musicians Linda McMahon, Jean Mc Cann, Margaret Lucas, Bernadette Krol, Elaine Gaugh, June Dombrowski, Lydia Obushkevich, Marie Vihonsky and Kathleen Karas skillfully render everything in their repertoire from Bach to Brubeck.

With both heads and hearts uplifted, this small group of the Sophomore-Junior Choral members exemplifies the spirit of Rosary in giving praise to God through liturgical singing.

" You have come to make what you hear your own,

by putting out your hand, as it were,

to grasp it and appropriate it."

Standing with poise and precision, Rosary's choral members eagerly await the raising of the baton, which will call forth the beautiful melodies designed to stir the hearts of their listeners.

To express herself, the student eventually has to control the symbols of her culture.

"A thousand guilders is what I want!" demands the Piper as he pipes his plea to the shocked corporation in the presentation of Robert Browning's Pied Piper of Hamlin.

"And people call me the Pied Piper," proclaims Chris Fracala, playing the title role in Father McAnoy's feast day program, The Pied Piper of Hamlin, presented by the junior and senior dramatics students.

"I shall rid your village of all the rats," proclaims Pied Piper Christine Fracala, as she presents her plan to the villagers.

Mary Jo Gallagher, proudly wearing her Genesian award for Shakespearian interpretation, pins tthe medal for skillful rendering of serious prose on fellow Genesian Arlene Strom. Patricia O'Donnell, who captured the honors in the category of religious poetry, looks on with enjoyment.

"This was told to me in confidence . . . . " divulging the latest bit of gossip, the demonstration verse choir, wearing the latest styles in hats, entertains the Mother's Club of Our Lady Gate of Heaven parish.

Well, if you like peanut butter on your mashed potatoes . . .

Sister Robert Mary and Mary Kay Matuzak delight in making delicious concoctions since the milk shake machine has inhabited its corner in the soda bar.

"Oh, I just love to do dishes," says Sandra Karnafel to Donna Abramowicz, her not-so-enthusiastic partner, as they struggle through the rigors of the lunch-hour.

Louise Breidenich, Eileen Raymond, and Barbara Swift joyfully volunteer their services in helping Mary Carpentier cut and sample a piece of her birthday cake.

"Here's to you." Andy Piotrowski proposes a milk shake toast to Connie Jaskolski and Cheryl Spence in the Soda Bar, where old friends meet and new friends are met.

Smile, girls! You've made it! That seemingly endless line has dwindled to the final three hundred. At last! We eat!

"The measure of love is love unmeasured."

—Perrin

Looking for the "cause that refreshes"? At Rosary, it's surely the missions, for on carnival day the academic wheels slow down a bit, and everybody takes a little time out of a busy schedule to relax, enjoy the festivities and help those less fortunate than we. Days ahead of time, homerooms buzz as mission-minded Rosarians get together to swap ideas, and you never know just what to expect until the big day comes.

You might be lucky enough to have your picture taken, and discover features you never knew were there! A few paltry yellow tickets gain admission to a fashion show of the most up-to-date styles — up to the date of 1900 or so, that is. You "thought you saw a puddy cat"? You thought right! He's yours for the winning, on carnival day. If you can't manage any other feat, getting into jail takes almost no skill at all; it's getting out that takes all your dime.

Whatever the nature of the fun, each hand that tosses a ring, throws a dart or aims a clothespin at the bottle is a friendly, strong, supporting hand for Christ's poor. Whatever we do for the least of our brethren, we do for Him. We pray that He may accept our offering and convert it into treasure in heaven — the currency that really counts.

Physical Education

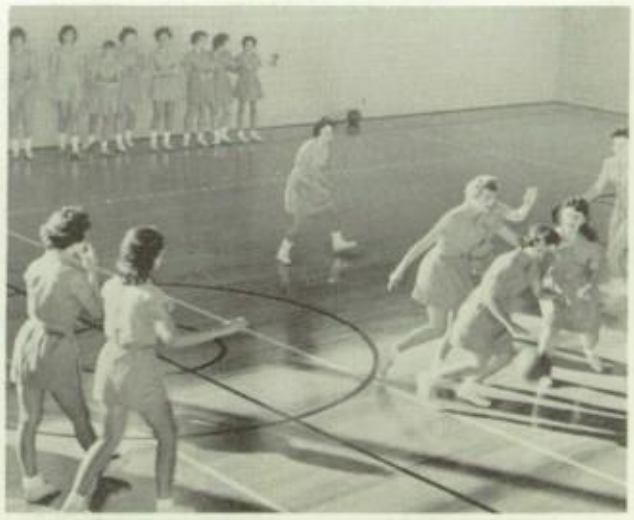
Basketball

The precision and form exhibited in this jump-ball shot are the fruits of grueling hours of faithful practice.

Time out as Miss Davis pauses to read a message delivered by courier Andrea Makar. Is it the varsity schedule?

Enthusiastic athletes reach for the sky! It's not a gun that's worrying them though—just a jump ball.

"Too many cooks spoil the broth," but in this case it's "Too many hands make the ball elusive."



Rosary girls know there's nothing like basketball for developing good sportsmanship, quick thinking and a strong, healthy body.

Flying through the air with the greatest of ease, this volleyball is just beginning its trip as the game gets under way.

It's a swing by Bloomfield High as Rosary's field hockey team blocks the goal shot.

"Look, all you have to do is hit the birdie," carefully explains Julianna Papp to her Sophomore sisters, Leslie Anne Brancheau, Susan Maslak and Janice Means.

Excitement mounts and spirits soar as Rosary's number 5 and her opponent struggle for the precious pigskin.

Varsity, Junior Varsity, cheerleaders, pep squads, parents and students all have one hope . . . GO ROSARY! BEAT IMMACULATA!

" Glad the maidens shall dance,

The cheerful sounds of clapping hands and stamping feet resound from the rafters at the Freshmen's Father-Daughter square dance.

Jack Frost's hand is evident in brisk air and pretty fall leaves, and also in the bright plaids and gay colors which found their way to the Sophomores' "Autumn Haze."

Gay Halloween pumpkins and corn stalks from the fields fill the gym with a rustic atmosphere for their country-style square dance.

As all roads lead to Rome, eventually our weary dancers, Janet Ross and Nancy Newton, with their escorts, retreat to the cafeteria to refresh themselves with coke and chips.

gladness there shall be for young and old alike."

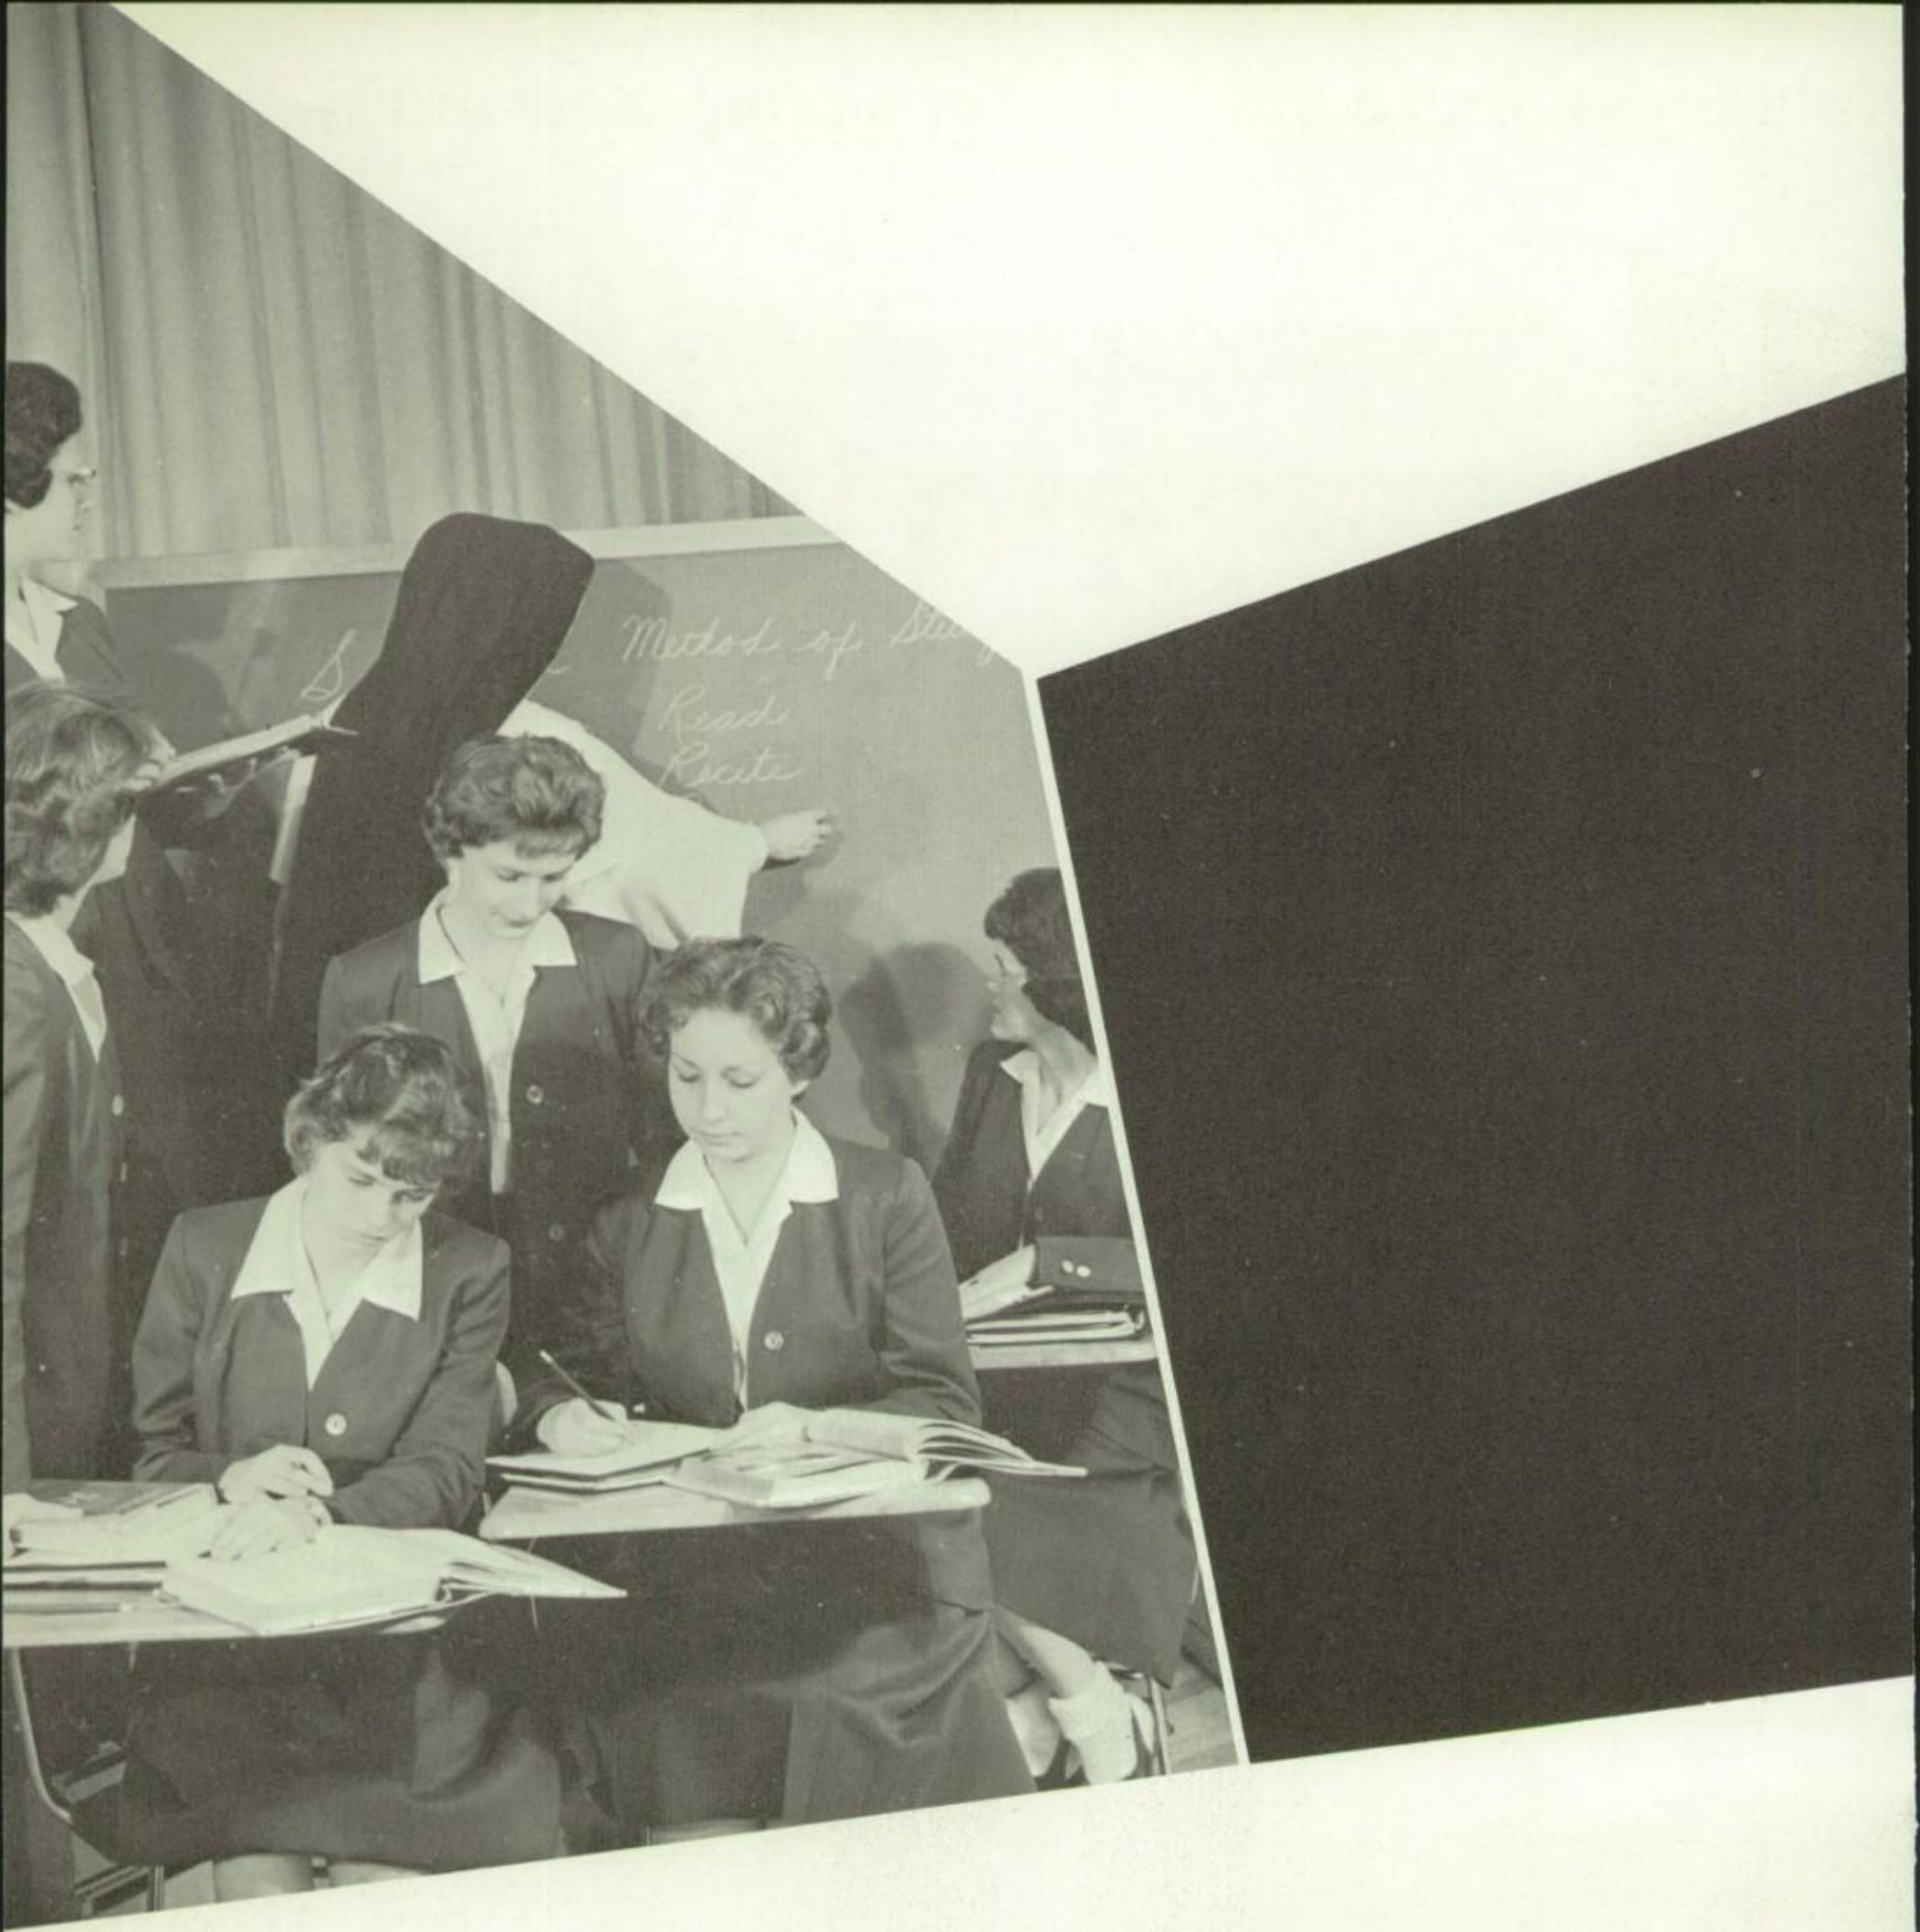
"Swing your partners and promenade!" The Freshmen happily recall the pleasant time they shared with their favorite dates, their dads.

Unfortunately, the frost here is no fantasy! No wonder all are heading for the nice warm gym.

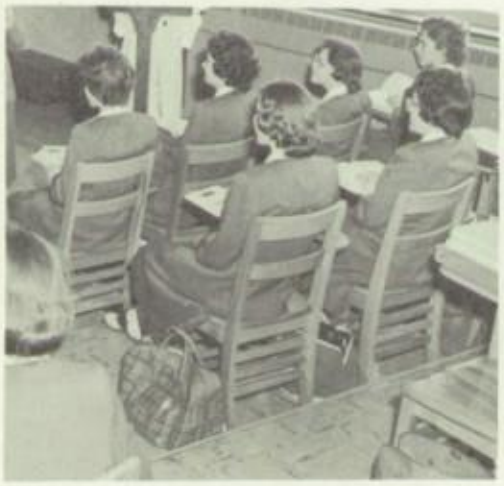
"No posing, please!" Nancy Stults, Paulette Staffin, Joanne Ferreri and Joanne Sladewski don't realize that these are supposed to be candid shots of their Senior dance.

"Silvery white winters that melt into spring," are surely among the favorite things of Rosary's Seniors, especially when such events as the "Fantasy in Frost" are a part of them.

The Christmas spirit dominates this scene as Sister Rose Clare converses with the chaperones, Mr. and Mrs. Mc Cann, and Mary Jo Kelly waits to introduce her dancing partner.



Scholarship



"He has filled the hungry with good things, and sent the rich away empty handed."

Our minds seek eagerly after truth. We strive to learn it well and carry it to others even as Our Lady brought Eternal Truth to Elizabeth and to the world. She sang as she carried Him and in this, too, we would be like her. For knowledge of Him and His world severs the bonds of ignorance and evil which alone can silence happy voices. We shall ever be mindful that He once said, "The truth shall make you free."

The Library ....

—Pope Pius XII

Sacred Science

"IN A WORD, RELIGIOUS TRUTH IS NOT ONLY A PORTION BUT A CONDITION OF GENERAL KNOWLEDGE. TO BLOT IT OUT IS . . . TO TAKE THE SPRING FROM OUT OF THE YEAR."

—Romano Guardini

Girls who in later life will need the right answers on moral issues find Father McAnoy's discussion groups a source of invaluable information.

Janice Pierce and Cathy Doyle, in the true spirit of the season, light the traditional Advent wreath in preparation for the coming of Christ.

"Who me? Angelic?" Mary Ruth Humitz puts this question to Father Carroll, representative of the Angelic Warfare, as Beverly Spisak and Rita Jo Fitzgerald act as interested spectators.

Discussing a subject close to his heart, Father Carroll, of the Order of Preachers, explains the goals of the Angelic Warfare, an organzation of young men and women who strive to preserve perfect purity.

"The power of speech is a gift as great as any that can be named."

—John Henry Cardinal Newman

"O-N-O-M-A-T-O-P-O-E-I-A . . . Sister, are you sure that's a word?" Mary Forster seems a little confused.

Sister Assissium and Anne Halley, in the third year English class, reach a happy conclusion and seem well satisfied with the result.

EDUCATION, IN OTHER WORDS, HAS AS ONE OF ITS PRIMARY OBJECTS TO TEACH US HOW TO STOP AND BE STILL AND LOOK, HOW TO CONCENTRATE OUR GAZE TILL THINGS BEGIN TO REVEAL THEIR MYSTERY TO US. IT MUST TEACH US TO PRESERVE AND HEIGHTEN OUR SENSE OF WONDER, WHICH IS THE WOMB OF POETRY AND OF PHILOSOPHY ALIKE; FOR OTHERWISE, NO MATTER WHAT OUR BOOKLEARNING, BEAUTY AND LIFE WILL PASS US BY.

—The Water and the Fire
by Gerald Vann

These six Freshman English students are completely engrossed in their interpretation of the Odyssey as their classmates listen attentively.

"Tomorrow, Tomorrow, Tomorrow." Carolyn Mojzis and Kathy McShane discuss the mood and theme of Macbeth in this senior English class. Christine Knight seems prepared to offer her opinion.

Junior Classical League officers Diane Feliks, Donna Lewandowski, Donna Niemiec and Karen McCarty have availed themselves of the opportunities which this organization offers, to learn of the great cultural contributions which ancient Greece and Rome have made to our twentieth-century civilization.

"Ole, amigas!" Trying to get that "south of the border" rhythm, Sister Rudolf shows Bevely Spisak what is needed for that certain touch. "Bravo!" shout Cathy Benkert, Karen Raszkowski and Joan Bosca.

Languages

The language laboratory, another "first" for Rosary, is given the final adjustment by a skilled technician under the watchful eyes of Diane Feliks and Rosalie Lucchese.

Sister Josepha's Spanish students prove that with the help of the new language learning laboratory, education becomes not only enlightening but enjoyable as well.

The extended finger, property of Sister James Noreen, is a gesture of warning to eager typing students, here typified by Constance Matfey, lest they begin before the signal is given.

"Keep your eyes on the book, not on the machine," are the famous words of Sister James Noreen to Pat Loftus, as Carolyn Stewart, Mary Carpentier, Camille Wojdylak and Alice Maciag listen carefully for further instructions.

Sister Mary Raphael informs the Rosary girls of the fine opportunities available to them in the field of business at Siena Heights College.

Math Club members Mary Ann Harabin, Margaret Hudzik, Judith Roden, Linda Hicks, Frances Gapp, and Bernice Sulak assemble for their bi-monthly meeting to discuss the answers to the latest perplexing problems.

"Make sure your margin is set for 70," Sister Lourdes cautions as Patricia Magon begins a difficult job in this Typing II class.

"STUDY, THEREFORE. APPLY YOURSELVES TO YOUR STUDIES WITH THE EXPENDITURE OF EVERY EFFORT AND DO NOT PASS OVER ANYTHING THAT YOUR TEACHERS AND YOUR CURRICULA OFFER YOU."

—Pope Pius XII

Mathematics
Natural Sciences

Experimenting with substance weights, Frances Gapp seems convinced that "It's better to light one candle than to curse the darkness." Rita Jo Fitzgerald and Karen Raszkowski aren't so sure, however. They look prepared to run just in case . . .

" 'Bubble, bubble, toil and trouble' will it explode?" ask chemistry students Mary Louise Willis, Nancy Walkowski, Mary McKenna, and Carol Gable.

Math Club officers Mary Ann Harabin, Margaret Hudzik, and Judith Roden are convinced that the many technological advances of our day would have been impossible without the aid of their favorite science.

Sister Judith Mary illustrates to her Freshmen students that Algebra can be fun, enjoyable, and entertaining.

Is the moon really made of cheese? Science Club officers Sue Ruddell, Pat Ruddell, Joan Mydlarz and Margaret Swift will know just as soon as their telescope plan materializes.

Engrossed in Sister Rose Ann's explanation of polygons and theorems, this geometry class will be well prepared for their next exam.

Home Economics

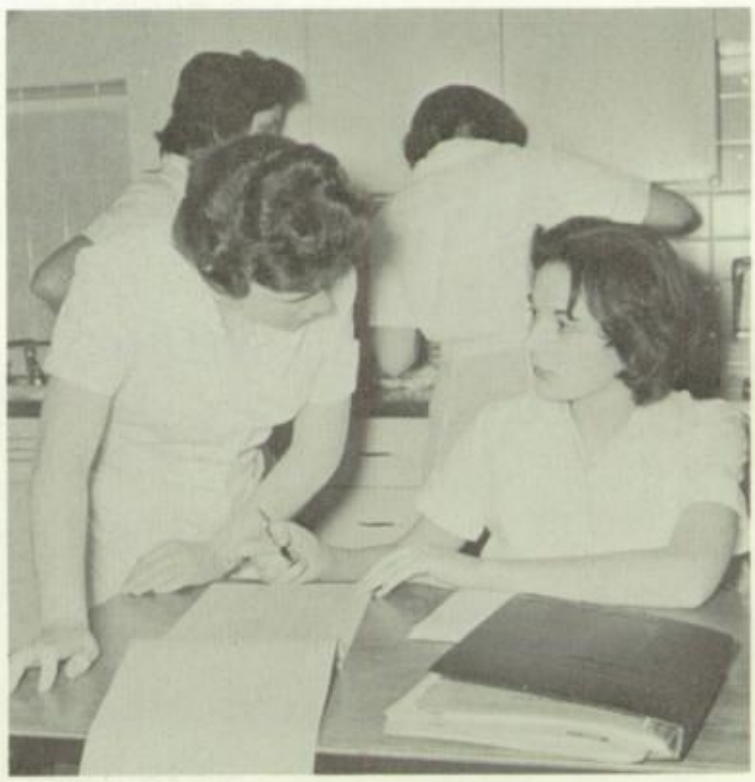
The art of the Christian homemaker is one of the loftiest to which any women can aspire. For this reason Rosary is especially proud of Senior Marylyn Kaltz, winner of the Betty Crocker award. Marylyn receives the congratulations of classmates Dolores Miller, Nancy Moore, and Barbara Campau.

A little yeast and a lot of flour, a little skill and a lot of patience all go into a prize-winning loaf of bread. Carol Cloutier, Joanne Olson, and Carol Cowan, winners of the foods class bread baking contest, sample the results of these magic ingredients.

"THE USEFUL ARTS, THEREFORE, NOT ONLY MAKE USEFUL THINGS FOR US, BUT THEY ALSO TRY TO MAKE THESE THINGS PLEASANT. THE COOK NOT ONLY MAKES FOOD TO NOURISH US, BUT ALSO TO BE ATTRACTIVE BOTH TO OUR EYES AND TO OUR TASTE . . . IF GOD HAS MADE THE PHYSICAL WORLD NOT ONLY USEFUL BUT VERY, VERY PLEASANT, THEN WE ALSO SHOULD STRIVE TO MAKE OUR WORKS OF USEFUL ART NOT ONLY USEFUL BUT PLEASANT."

—Benedict Ashley, O.P.

"Why, of course it's going to be a cake!" exclaims Carol Cloutier, who good-naturedly chides Pat Putz for her lack of faith.



Realizing that organization plays an important role in the life of the modern homemaker, Margaret Nestor and Carol Graham carefully prepare for the next foods class.

A smartly-styled and modest new wardrobe appears to be the objective of Mary Kaminski, Judy Capozzoli and Nancy Stults, creative students of the clothing class.

All ready for the Easter parade, Andrea Palowitz, Rosemary Benivegna and Carrolyn Zecker, members of the clothing class, proudly display their handiwork.

"I'm sorry, Nancy, you'll have to rip it out again." Sister Frances Anthony makes a solemn decision.

Delighted with their new outfits, these clothing students, Joanne Tuchowski and Jennie Chouinard, are in step with both Paris and practicality.

These ladies will surely be the most eye-catching in the fashion show. Rosemary Benivegna and Carrolyn Zecker cast admiring glances at the attractive outfits each has made.

Basting, pinning, a little tuck here and a small dart there, precedes the modeling of Judy Capozzoli's plaid coat.

"The Song of the Incarnation". . .

The melodious voices of the Sophomore-Junior Choral combine to bring forth the "Song of the Incarnation."

"We have seen His star in the East and are come with gifts to adore the Lord." Wise men Louise Breidenich, Janet Stewart and Colleen Cameron with pages Carol Acosta, Kathleen Brownhill and Kathryn Polkowski re-enact the beautiful Epiphany scene.

St. Nicholas, portrayed by Pat Nedwicki, traditionally fills the wooden shoes with fruit and candy as Dutch children, Lydia Obushkevich and Rosalind Brennan, joyfully watch.

Christmas 1960

The Oriental races praise the newborn King and thank Him for His blessings.

Christine Knight, Sandra Dobson as Saint Lucy, and Marilyn Gajda demonstrate the Swedish way of celebrating Christmas in this lovely Swedish Light dance.

"Bravo! Bravo!" shout Mexican exchange students Gloria Selva, Rosa Maria Gutierrez, Elizabeth Shanahan, and Maria Eugenia Medellin, as goodies and gifts are successfully extracted from the pinata. This Christmas custom is among the most popular practiced by our neighbors south of the border.

Narrator Marjorie Oller, accompanied by the verse choir, joins with the Sophomore-Junior choral to relate the story of Christmas in Canada.

While they "Deck the halls with boughs of holly," these English lads and lassies will not suffer from the cold with this Yule log burning.

"The Song of the Incarnation" is a folk song telling of the Christmas celebration of people from many lands. Here the Italians, recreating the manger scene, give adoration to God's Son.

The graceful bodily movement of these young Scandinavian couples expresses the joy that fills their hearts and souls at the coming of the Savior.

"Sh-h-h! We musn't let him know we're here! These Hollanders caution one another about Saint Nick's arrival to fill their wooden shoes, for this is the Christmas tradition of Holland.

Hard work,
bright costumes,
tattered scripts, and greasepaint are all symbolic of the enchanting ....

A little flower girl, Arlene Strom, offers blossoms to Our Lady of the Crucible, portrayed by Patricia Nedwicki, as the Sodality play unfolds on Rosary's patronal feast day.

...world of dramatics.

Unrestrained laughter results as Senior dramatics students enact this medieval farce. Shoemaker Trudy McSorley and friend Fritz, Jill Grey, are learning the hard way from wife Agnes Schermerhorn that . . . "you'll lose your head — perhaps your life — if you play tricks — on the shoemaker's wife."

Rosary's representatives to the International Club, Marilyn Piech, Jackie Pomann, Jean McCann and Joanne Ruppe, meet after classes to prepare their next topic for discussion.

The Freshman World Geography class listens attentively as Sister Siena presents an introduction to Africa.

Provided with the right subject matter and an enthusiastic approach, the chairman of Sister Charles Marie's world history class gives an excellent example of student administration.

"THE PAGEANT OF EARTHLY ROYALTY HAS THE SEMBLANCE AND THE BENDICTION OF THE ETERNAL KING. PEACE AND CIVILIZATION, COMMERCE AND ADVENTURE, WARS WHEN JUST, CONQUEST WHEN HUMANE AND NECESSARY, HAVE HIS CO-OPERATION, AND HIS BLESSINGS UPON THEM. THE COURSE OF EVENTS, THE REVOLUTION OF EMPIRES, THE RISE AND FALL OF STATES, THE PERIODS AND ERAS, THE PROGRESSES AND THE RETROGRESSIONS OF THE WORLD'S HISTORY . . . THE GREAT OUTLINES AND THE RESULTS OF HUMAN AFFAIRS, ARE FROM HIS DISPOSITIONS."

—John Henry Cardinal Newman

"We hold these truths to be self-evident . . . all men are created equal." Zealous members of the Junior Round Table, Nickola Richmond, Bonnie McIntosh, and Patricia McKanna discuss their activities under the supervision of Sister Rose Ann. Sister Monica Mary joins their discussion.

Sister Francis Gerald's students are surely not crying for "liberty or death!" Nathan Hale's sentiments might be more appropriate — "We regret that we have but one hour to give to American History."

Eager Freshmen know that "the I's have it":

incentive, imagination,

industry, ideals, initiative.

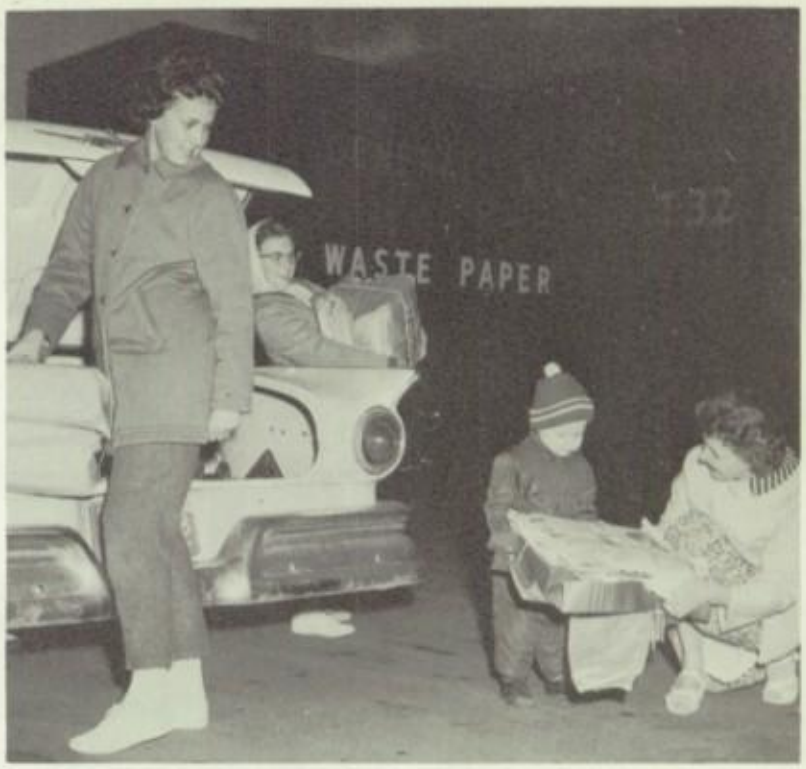
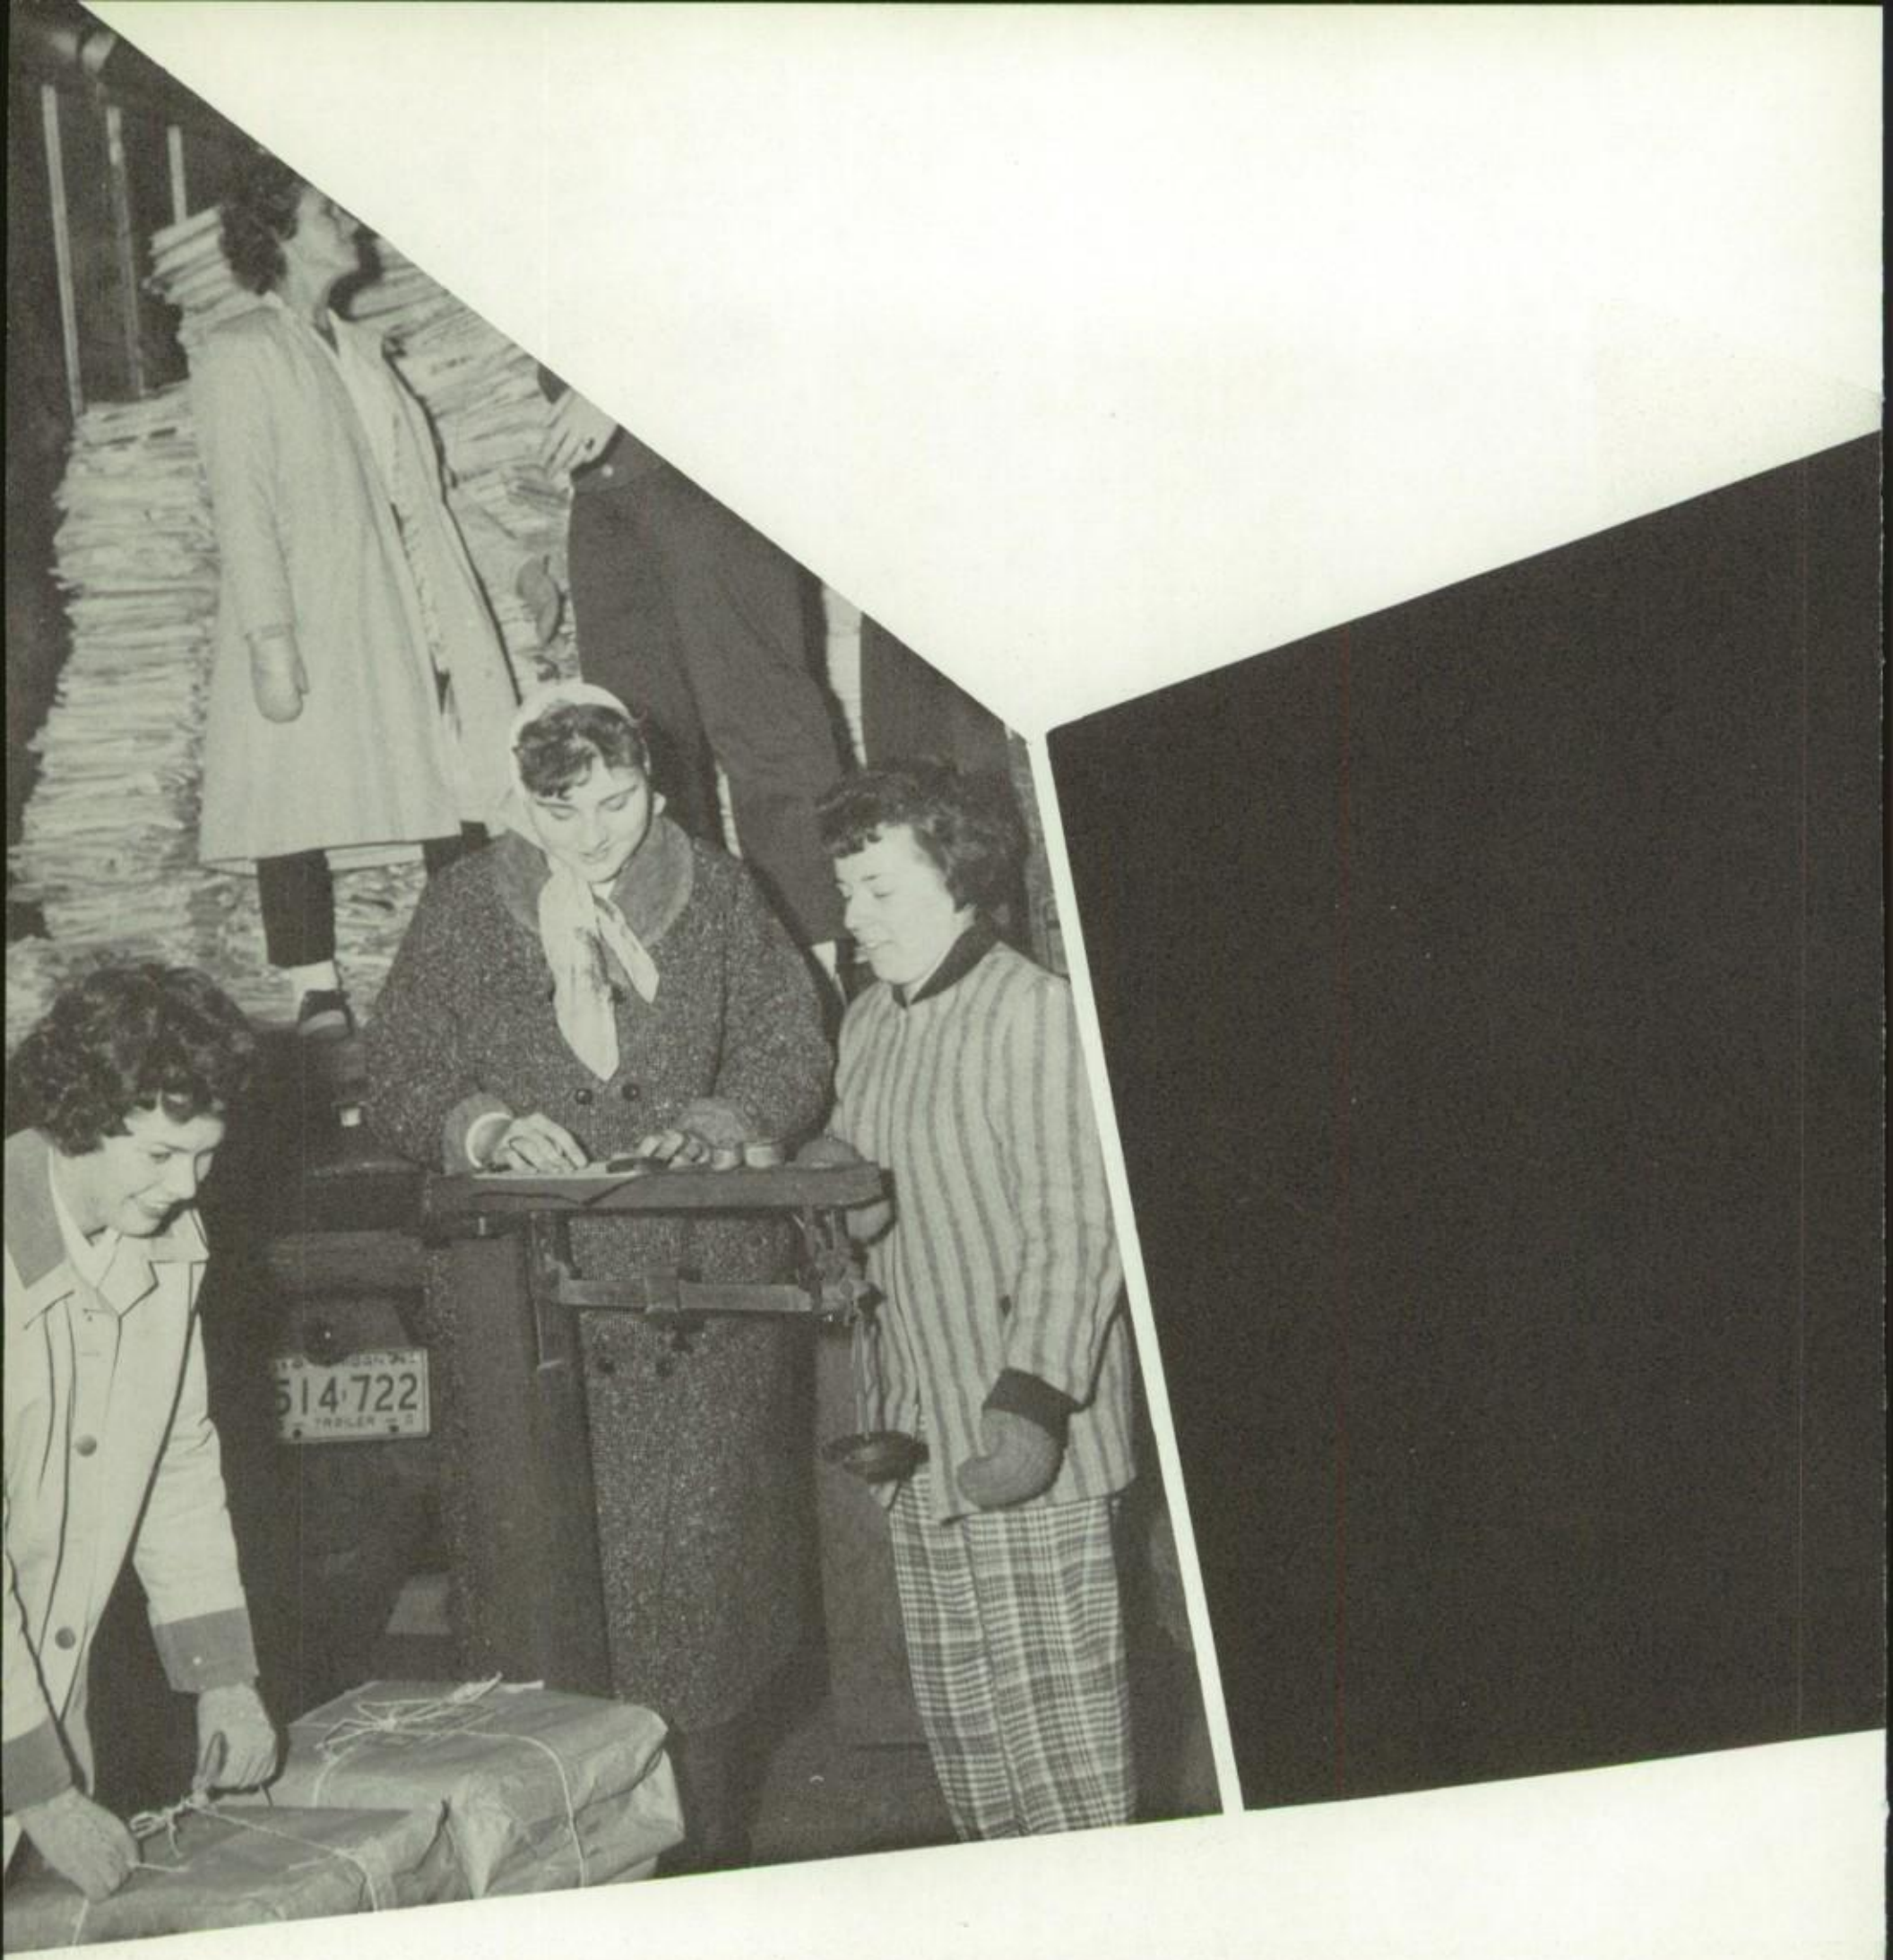
Not to buy or sell but to trade. Student friendship for faculty understanding. Inquire: faculty and student body, Rosary High School.



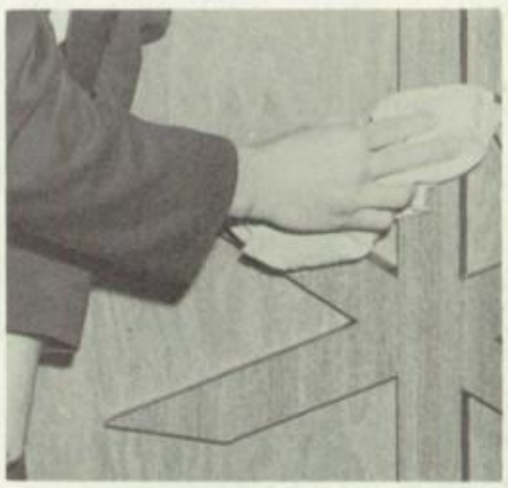
Rosary's paper drives draw helpers from all age groups, including this willing but weak volunteer.

The basketball team of Room 111 boasts a victory over the Seniors in the championship playoffs. Toni Liptak, coach, holds the well-deserved trophy.

Sister Judith Mary and the members of the physics class watch intently as Diana Zyskowski and Regina Stefaniak strive to balance the Wheatstone bridge.



Service



"How magnificent, Lord, is the strength of Thy right hand." With buckets and brooms and bundles of paper, we sing a special kind of song. As strong hands reach out to share the burdens of busy days, we offer the lovely rhythm to Him, Whose hands once stretched forth and remain forever fastened, in timeless rendering of loving service.

"We grant that God wants, first and always,
But. . . . He also wants the good work." —Pope Pius XII

Miss Nancy Hussey
Office Clerk

Always alert to lend cheerful assistance, our amiable Miss Hussey has become an important part of our well-managed office.

THE SERVICE SO AMIABLY RENDERED BY THE LADIES WHO PREPARE THE TASTY FOOD SERVED IN OUR CAFETERIA CAN NEVER BE ACCURATELY MEASURED.

Mrs. Kathleen Cockburn

Mrs. Mary McParlane

Mrs. Agnes Burns

Mrs. Anne LaFontsee

Mr. Meloche takes pleasure and pride in seeing that Rosary's domestic needs are fulfilled. His singing saw and tapping hammer are a lovely accompaniment for our canticle.

"Dashing through the snow in a sixty horsepower plow . . ." is just one of the many services rendered by Mr. Di Laura, Rosary's maintenance man.

Sister Ann Charles' contagious enthusiasm for her work stimulated the interest of many girls in the field of medical technology.

Sister Assisium obligingly supplies French Club members Ann Maguire, Barbara Siesputowski, Lynne Williston, and Lorraine Roeback with copies of articles which are helpful in the study of French.

Rosary is justly proud of the academic achievements of Joanne Ruppe, Diana Zyskowski and Regina Stefaniak, all semifinalists in the National Merit Scholarship Examination.

Miss Ann Culkin, a truly womanly woman, who has dedicated her life to developing not only outer beauty but also inner character, is herself a perfect example of Christian femininity. Through the culture course, Miss Culkin imparted her high ideas to the Rosary student body.

Sister Mary Denise, representing the Music Department of Siena Heights College, explains to the girls the wonderful opportunities open to them in the field of music at Siena.

Just one of the many advantages open to the Rosary Seniors is the consultation of the Michigan Employment Security Commission. Here an experienced counselor advises Clare Ann King.

"Ready ho? Let's go!" Rosary's fine performance during the 1960-61 basketball season was due in no small measure to the spirit and leadership of her Athletic Association officers, Karen Raskowski, Camille Kurzeja, Marguerite Casey, Carol Cloutier and Gloria Liptak.

The Rosary girl's motto: "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." To put up the volleyball net, that is!

"ALWAYS CONSIDER YOUR SCHOOL, WHETHER LARGE AND NEAT, OR SMALL AND MUSTY, AS A TEMPLE WHERE DIGNITY AND PURITY PREVAIL, WHERE TRUTH AND JUSTICE HAVE PROMINENT PLACES, WHERE RELIGION IS RESPLENDENT."

—Pope Pius XII

Searching for interesting articles on current affairs, library workers Frances Szspondowski, Jeanette Zurawski and Joan Tobin prepare a morgue for the school library.

Scissors, paste, paper . . . Jo Ann Wisinski, Patricia Potocki, and Susan Smith are busy aiding Sister Christine Marie with her many library duties.

Rosary pays tribute to the Girls' Athletic Association for their fine school spirit — spirit for which Rosary is well-known throughout the city.

"There is a duty we owe to human society as such,

As Carol Kesckemeti flees the camera, Kathy Haman uses a restraining hand as if to say: "If Canticle readers can take it, so can you!"

Whether it's sandwiches or a sirloin steak, Bonnie McIntosh and Shirley La Pointe serve it in such a way that Father McAnoy considers it food fit for a king.

"The habit oft' proclaims the man . . ." and the woman in this case, reflect Joan Mydlarz, Margaret Schweickert and Linda Hennessy as they patiently check senior coats at the "Fantasy in Frost".

to the individuals towards whom we are variously related,
and whom we successively encounter in life."

—John Henry Cardinal Newman

The sun may set, but the papers rise . . . and rise . . . and rise! The volunteered services of such crews as the one pictured here assures the success of one of Rosary's paper drives.

Kathy Schultz and Geraldine Wolsos, supply room tenders, are exponents of the old tradition that, "The customer is always right," as they accommodate all would-be investors in everything from a $5.00 text-book to a 5c eraser.

"Great occasions of serving God present themselves but seldom, but little ones frequently." —Saint Francis de Sales

Donna Kleszcz and Christine Campbell, whose duties in the gift shop include unpacking new merchandise, are preparing for the rush of last-minute Christmas shoppers.

Under the watchful eye of Sister Vincella these deft workers lay the portable gym floor with easy and accuracy . . . and they seem to be having a good time doing it!

Quite in the holiday spirit, Judy Shannon, Mary Kay Allberry, Bonnie Sharp, Jo Marie Streva, Pat Leonik, Patsy DiPonio, Marlene Blake, and Judy Kaltz pose with their favorite companions — the Christmas cards they have faithfully delivered day after day.

The portable altar is prepared by sacristans Julie Jackson, Bernadette Dooling and Eileen Doyle, who give reverent attention to preparations for Mass in the auditorium.

United in teamwork we chance greater goals.

Members of the Safety and Citizenship Council receive orders from Captain Tobey Malnar. The girls help the students to prove that "safety is the best policy."

President Patricia Pettis and Secretary Andrea Palowitz brief these Safety and Citizenship Council members before they go on duty.

"The life they save may be your own." Greenfield traffic neither frightens nor phases members of the Safety and Citizenship Council, represented here by officers Carol Herman, Andrea Palowitz and Patricia Schloff.

"Lights, camera, operators!" Be it film strip, slides or movies, the Audio-Visual Club helps make the most modern teaching aids available to Rosary students. Here officers Mary Ellen Kenney, Nancy Bond, and Romualda Casper discuss a newly-arrived film.

Buttons, switches, and reels are all part of the intricate equipment which Karen Raskowski skillfully handles in preparation for an assembly film.

Speaker? Program? Whatever the occasion, Rosary students prove themselves capable hostesses. Here Jane Ruemenapp, Nancy Freda and Beverly Incaudo await the arrival of guests in the auditorium lobby.

"Mary, Mary, quite contrary . . . " Garden Club members Margaret Nestor, Kathleen Duzak, Mary Margaret Bermel and Aurelia Zaydel, with moderator Sister Anne Celeste, carefully tend the foliage now gracing the lovely new planter fashioned by Mr. Meloche.

Sister Frances Anthony explains the do's and don't's of proper hostessing to Carol Cloutier, Martha McIntosh, Margaret Madden, and Marjorie Moxlow.

Satisfied with a job well done, convent chapel caretakers Frances Gapp, Barbara Siespzputowski, Janet Priemer, Mary Jane Beddows, Janet Williams, Rita Jo Fitzgerald, and Marlene Sata emerge from the Sister's residence happy to have been of service to the King.

Whether its piecing puzzles or playing "Chopsticks", Catherine Benkert and Marianne Baker tremendously enjoy the opportunity of working with little children provided them at the Christ Child Center.

After an hour of merriment and play, the boys and girls of the Christ Child Center eagerly take their places with Catherine Benkert and Marianne Baker, to listen with wide-eyed attention to Elsie Brake's interpretation of "The Tortoise and the Hare."

"A cultivated intellect, because it is good in itself, brings with it
a power and a grace to every work
and occupation
which it undertakes,

The Future Nurses' Club strives to prepare its members to live the dedicated lives that the nursing profession demands. Officers Laraine Lesley, Nancy Mancuso, Carolyn La Bram, Rosalind Brennan and Angela Spagnuolo work to achieve this goal.

Dinner time at Mt. Carmel Hospital finds the Rosary volunteers giving their services in every way possible. While some students prepare to distribute the trays, others receive last-minute instructions.

"Suffer the little children . . . " Caring for the young children is just one of the many works performed by members of the Mary Catherine Club at Mt. Carmel Mercy Hospital.

Home-nursing student Bernadette Gibbons, gently feeds Ann Webster. Joanne Ferreri and Angela Spagnuolo might be just a little envious of the tender, loving care Ann receives.

and enables us to be more useful, and to a greater number."

—John Henry Cardinal Newman

"Mirror, mirror on the wall, will this ever wash off?" ask worried Indians, Italians and Wise Men as Genesian Joanna Pawlak applies more Max Factor with great proficiency.

Christ often comes to the footlights of Rosary's stage through the efforts her Genesians. Here pictured are Genesian officers Olga Lashchuk, Mc Ruth Humitz, Julie Brady, Margaret Driscoll, Mary Jo Gallagher, Hel Bourke and Ellen Burns.

"I'll bet you just can't wait to get on stage for the first time!" encourages Senior dramatics student Jill Grey as she takes a final tuck in the page's costume. Freshman Carol Acosta isn't so sure at this point, as veteran Louise Briedenich looks on unconcernedly.

The Stage Crew at Work

Genesians Judy Shannon, Mary Jo Gallagher, Judy Kaltz and Cheryl Burch can be found backstage literally "learning the ropes" of correct stage procedure.

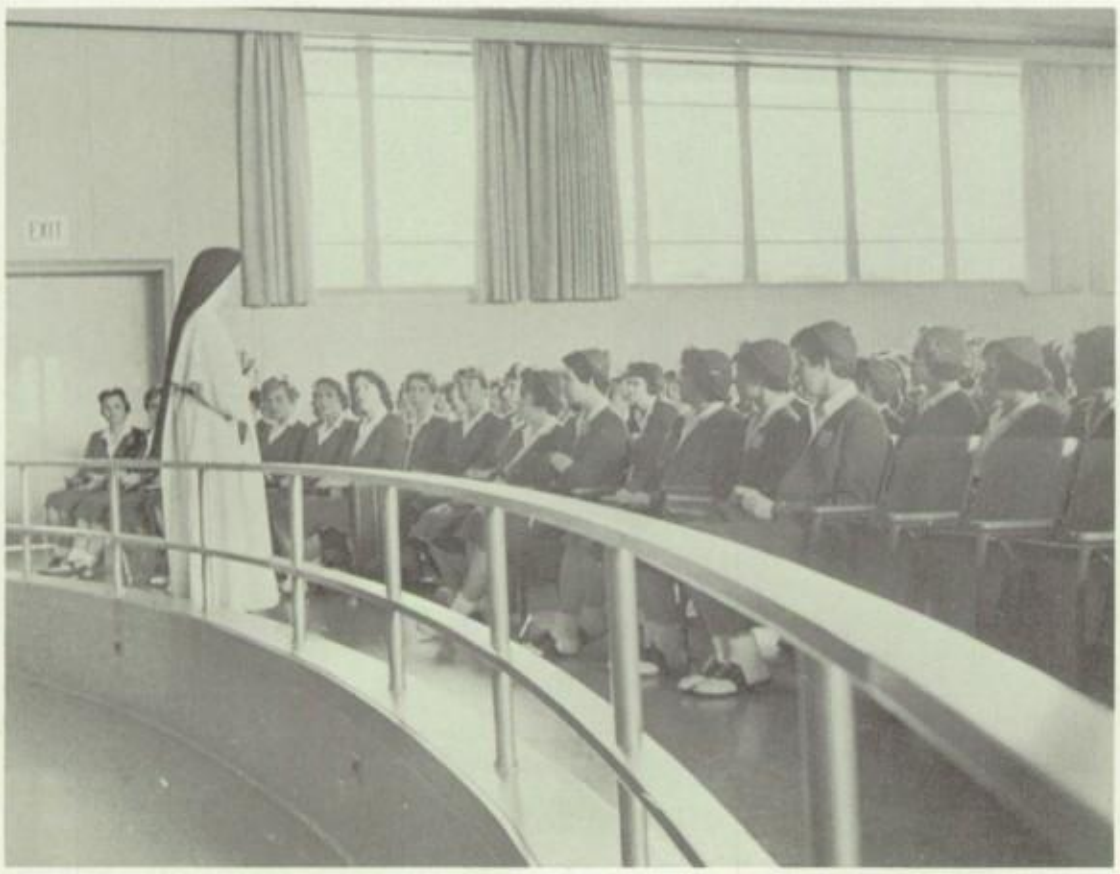
"Don't I look ravishing?" Colleen Cameron models a battered brown hat as Eileen Clancy, Sharon Devereaux, Gertrude McSorley, and Ausra Anuzis enjoy reminiscing about past productions in the costume room.

"And what did you think of that test?" Donna Niemiec, Carol Laschulk, Carolyn Roman, Adele Sobania, Patricia Putz, Marlene Sata, and Helen Jakeway conduct a post-mortem discussion of this morning's class.

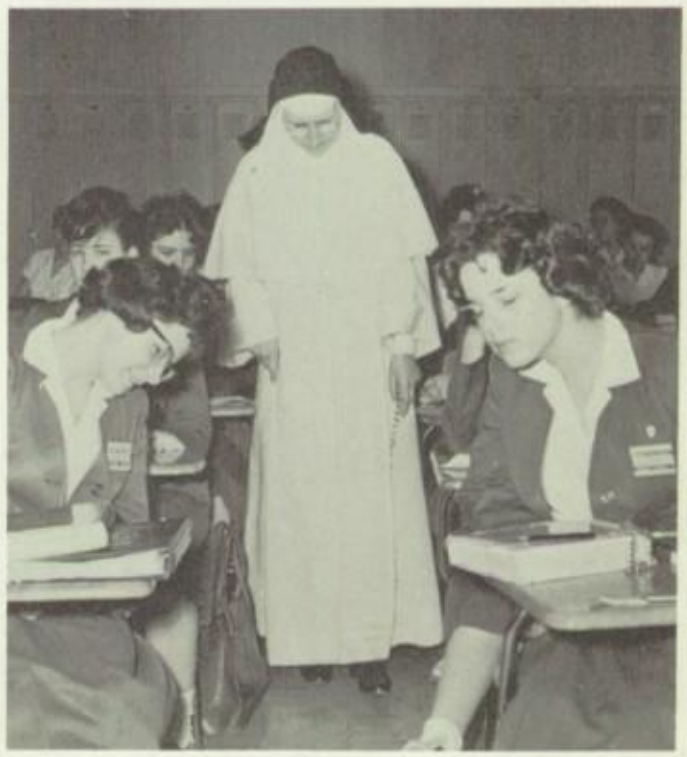
No, we're not being invaded! It's just Rosary's Freshmen planning to turn our school into a Halloween haven for their annual fall dance.

"The play's the thing . . . " and the rack's the thing for organizing costumes. Willing hands of soon-to-be-costumed students give Sister an assist.

"And people say the traffic on Telegraph is bad!" Causing a minor tie-up, Ausra Anuzis must be doing something extremely important . . . finding her lunch ticket!



Through student assemblies such as this, Sister Mary Philip guides the student body to an appreciation of the more worthwhile things—spiritual, cultural, and intellectual.



"Oh dear, I hope they're clean enough to pass inspection!" Joann Ruppe and Angie Spagnuolo seem quite concerned with Sister Francis Gerald only a few steps away.

The Student Council at Work

Reviewing the results of last year's paper drive brings not only assorted expressions and comments but high hopes to the junior and senior members of the Student Council Civic Bureau as they meet to prepare plans for the drive of the coming year. (Standing) Arlene Strom, Mary Lou Schuck, Sharon Giffin, Camille Kurzeja and Karen Fitzgerald. (Seated) Patricia Nedwicki, Mary Jane O'Kray, Sandra Hanak, Donna Niemiec and Kathleen McShane.

"At the sound of the tone the time will be ....." "Be serious," chides Sandra Hanak to Student Council President Pat McKanna, as Pat prepares to inform the school of the latest Student Council endeavors.

Student Council president Patricia McKanna plans and prepares the master sheet of senior teachers for Student Administration Day with Carol Julien, Sandra Hanak, Dolores Larys and Marylyn Kaltz.

Our Parents Meet

While conducting a panel on religious vocations, Mr. David Burnett, Mrs. James B. Croyn, Mrs. Gerald Deromme, Mr. Edward Letscher and Mrs. Thomas Doyle discuss the sacrifices demanded as well as the blessings that come to a family favored by God with a religious vocation.

No matter what the event, the dedicated board members of Rosary's Mothers' Club are ever-generous with their time and energy. Seated left to right are Mrs. Velda Hahn, Mrs. Alice Oller, Mrs. Mary Knight, Mrs. Hilda Jakeway, Mrs. Ellen Kenney, Mrs. Lucille Moran, Mrs. June McCann, and Mrs. Hazel Farrell. Standing are Mrs. Louise Smith, Mrs. Frances Driscoll, Mrs. Jo Doyle, Mrs. Toni Gentile, Mrs. Agnes McKenna and Mrs. Hattie Nowak.

The Father's Club monthly meetings play a triple role in the lives of the dads of our girls, for they supply an occasion to discuss their daughters' progress with faculty members, provide an opportunity to unite in supporting school activities, and last but not least, afford a chance to meet other dads with problems and interests akin to their own, and enjoy a pleasant evening in their company.

The Rosary High School Dad's Club has made 1961 an active and prosperous year in the school's short history, following the inspired leadership of Father Thomas McAnoy, Mr. Felix Polakowski, president; Mr. Norbert Wantland, Mr. Charles Allberry, and Mr. Beryl Coole.

what next?

It's a pretty important decision, young lady—choosing your job.

Of course you'll want a good starting salary with the opportunity for regular increases, pleasant surroundings, paid vacations, a chance to make new friends and all the other things that will make your work enjoyable.

But you're probably looking for something beyond these benefits—a job with an opportunity for you to make a real contribution, and one that can give you pride and satisfaction in your accomplishments.

There may be a job like this for you at the telephone company.

You might qualify as a telephone operator, or a teller, a cashier, or a clerk—these are just some of the many interesting jobs other graduates from your school have found at Michigan Bell. And there's advancement in every one of these positions for the girl who's interested in getting ahead. What next? Why not visit Michigan Bell's Employment Office and see. We'll be looking for you.

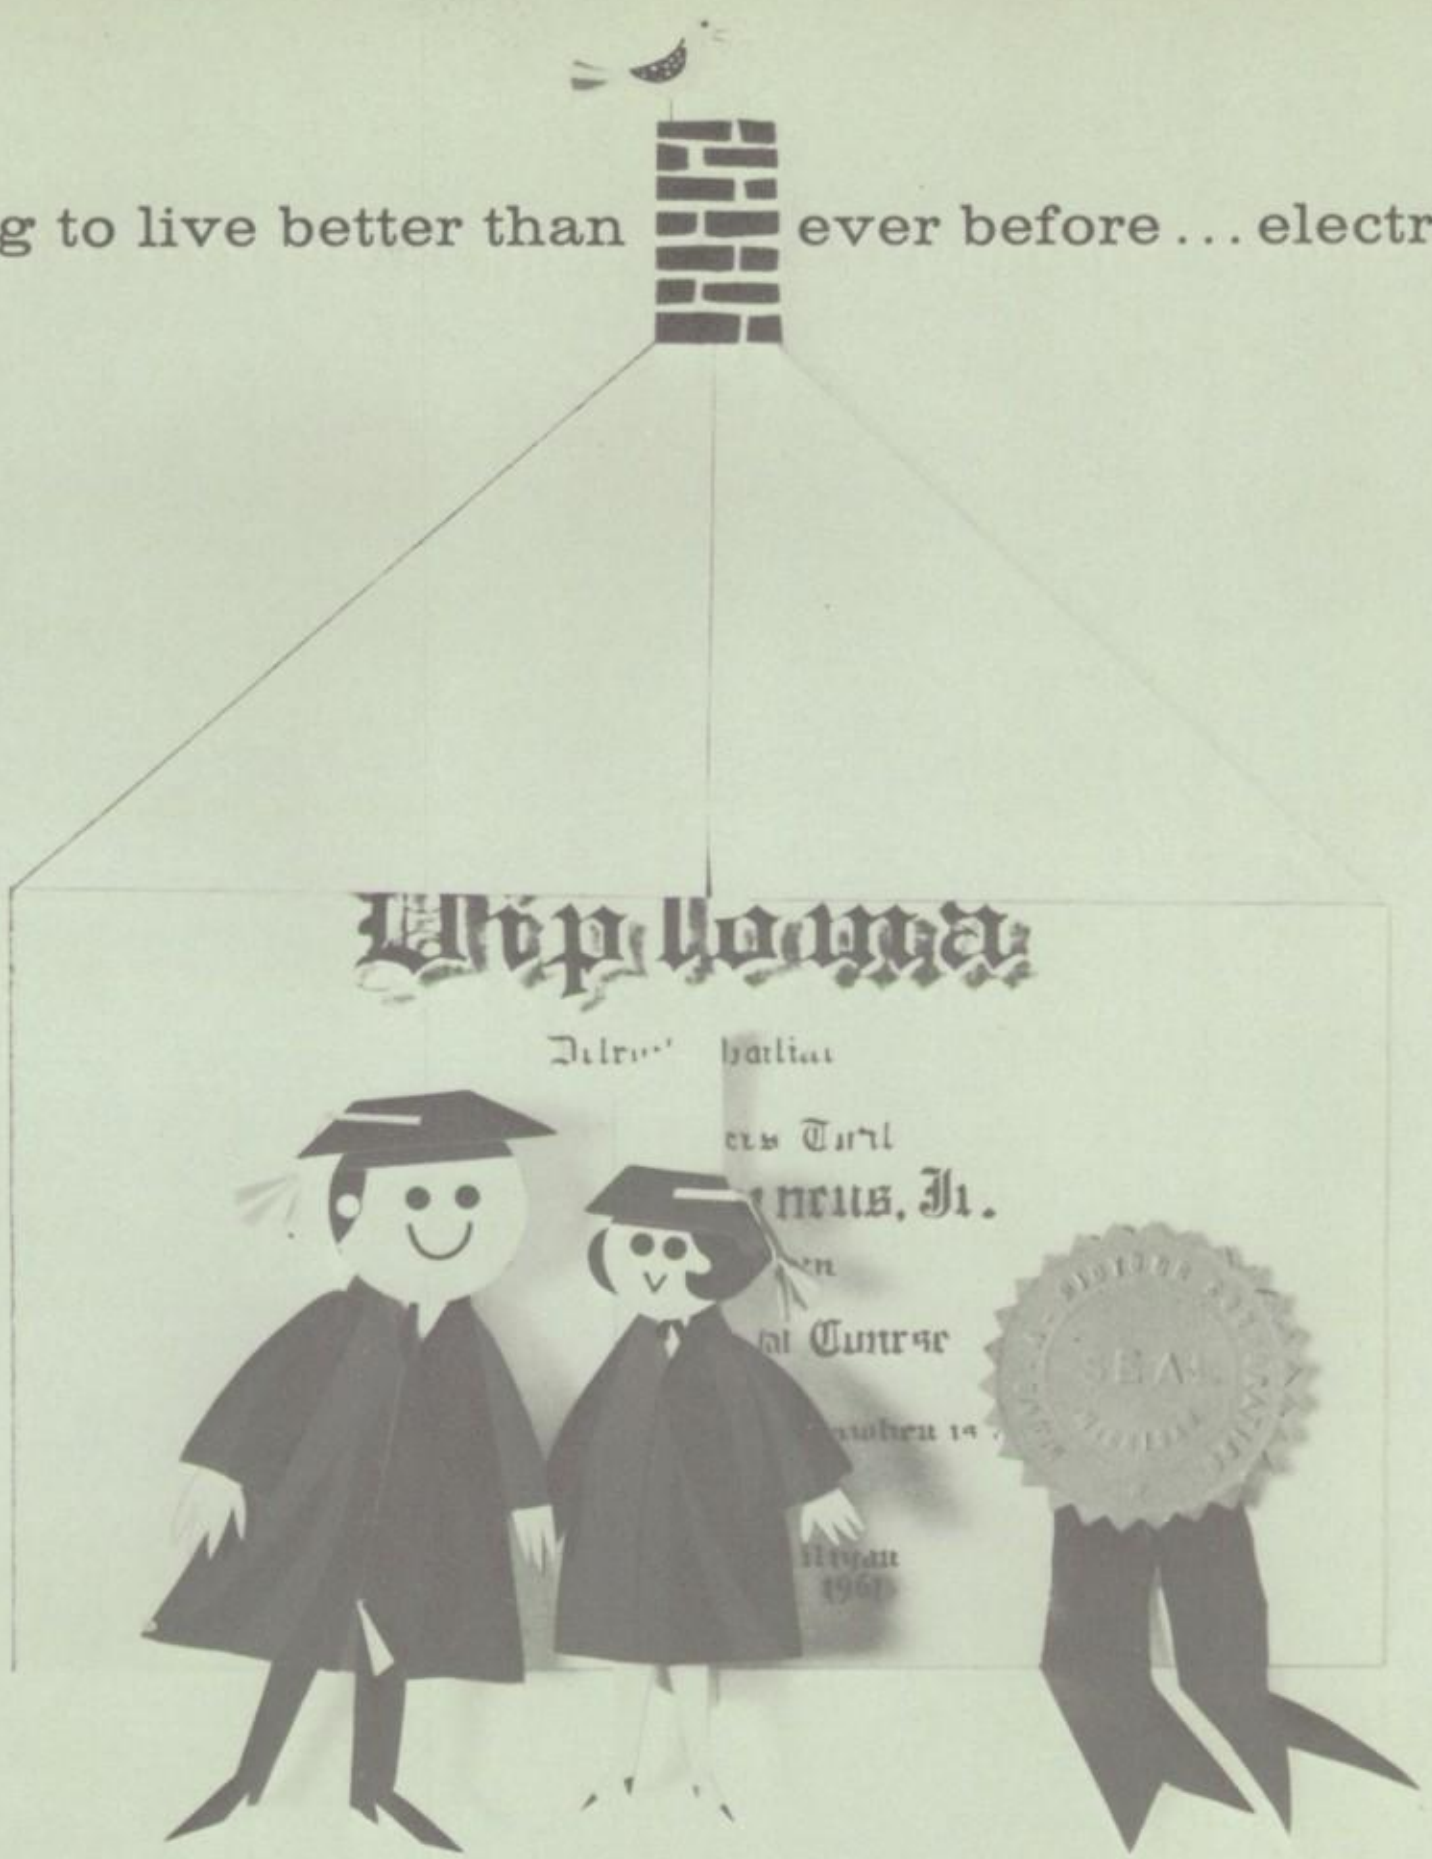
"What makes the stars twinkle?" Albertines Margaret Swift, Joyce Plecha and Joan Mydlarz will know the answer to this question after completing their telescope-building project.

going to live better than ever before . . . electrically!



You, today's graduate, are entering an exciting new era where you will live better than any generation has ever lived before—the era of all-electric living.

Your all-electric home for example, thanks to time-saving electric equipment and appliances, will allow you and your family more time to enjoy life together.

Your job will be smoother too. Electricity, in everything from office equipment to heavy machinery, will lighten your work—make it more enjoyable.

If you decide on further education, your field of study may well be related to electricity. Perhaps someday, as a scientist or technician, you will even lend your knowledge to further mold the all-electric world of tomorrow.

But wherever the future finds you, whatever your place in life, electricity will be there to help you live better than ever before—live better electrically.

Rosary's Civic Bureau is always ready to serve the school, be it in social, spiritual, or scholastic activities. The members are (standing) Ellen Farrell, Barbara Keck, Sandra Hanak, Sandra Matz, Cheryl Gruber, Susan Crissman and Suzanne Osinski; (seated) Mary Sobierai, Laura Champagne, Carol Reppa and Margaret McDonald.

Rosary girls who are especially gifted vocally feel very privileged, indeed, to have the guidance of Doctor Harry Seitz in developing their talents. Accompanied by Sister Josepha, we see pictured here Ruth Rash, Joan Bosca, Mary Ann LaTorre, Kathleen Schultz, Bernadette Doopling, Patricia Bosca, Colleen Moran and Patricia Ruoff.

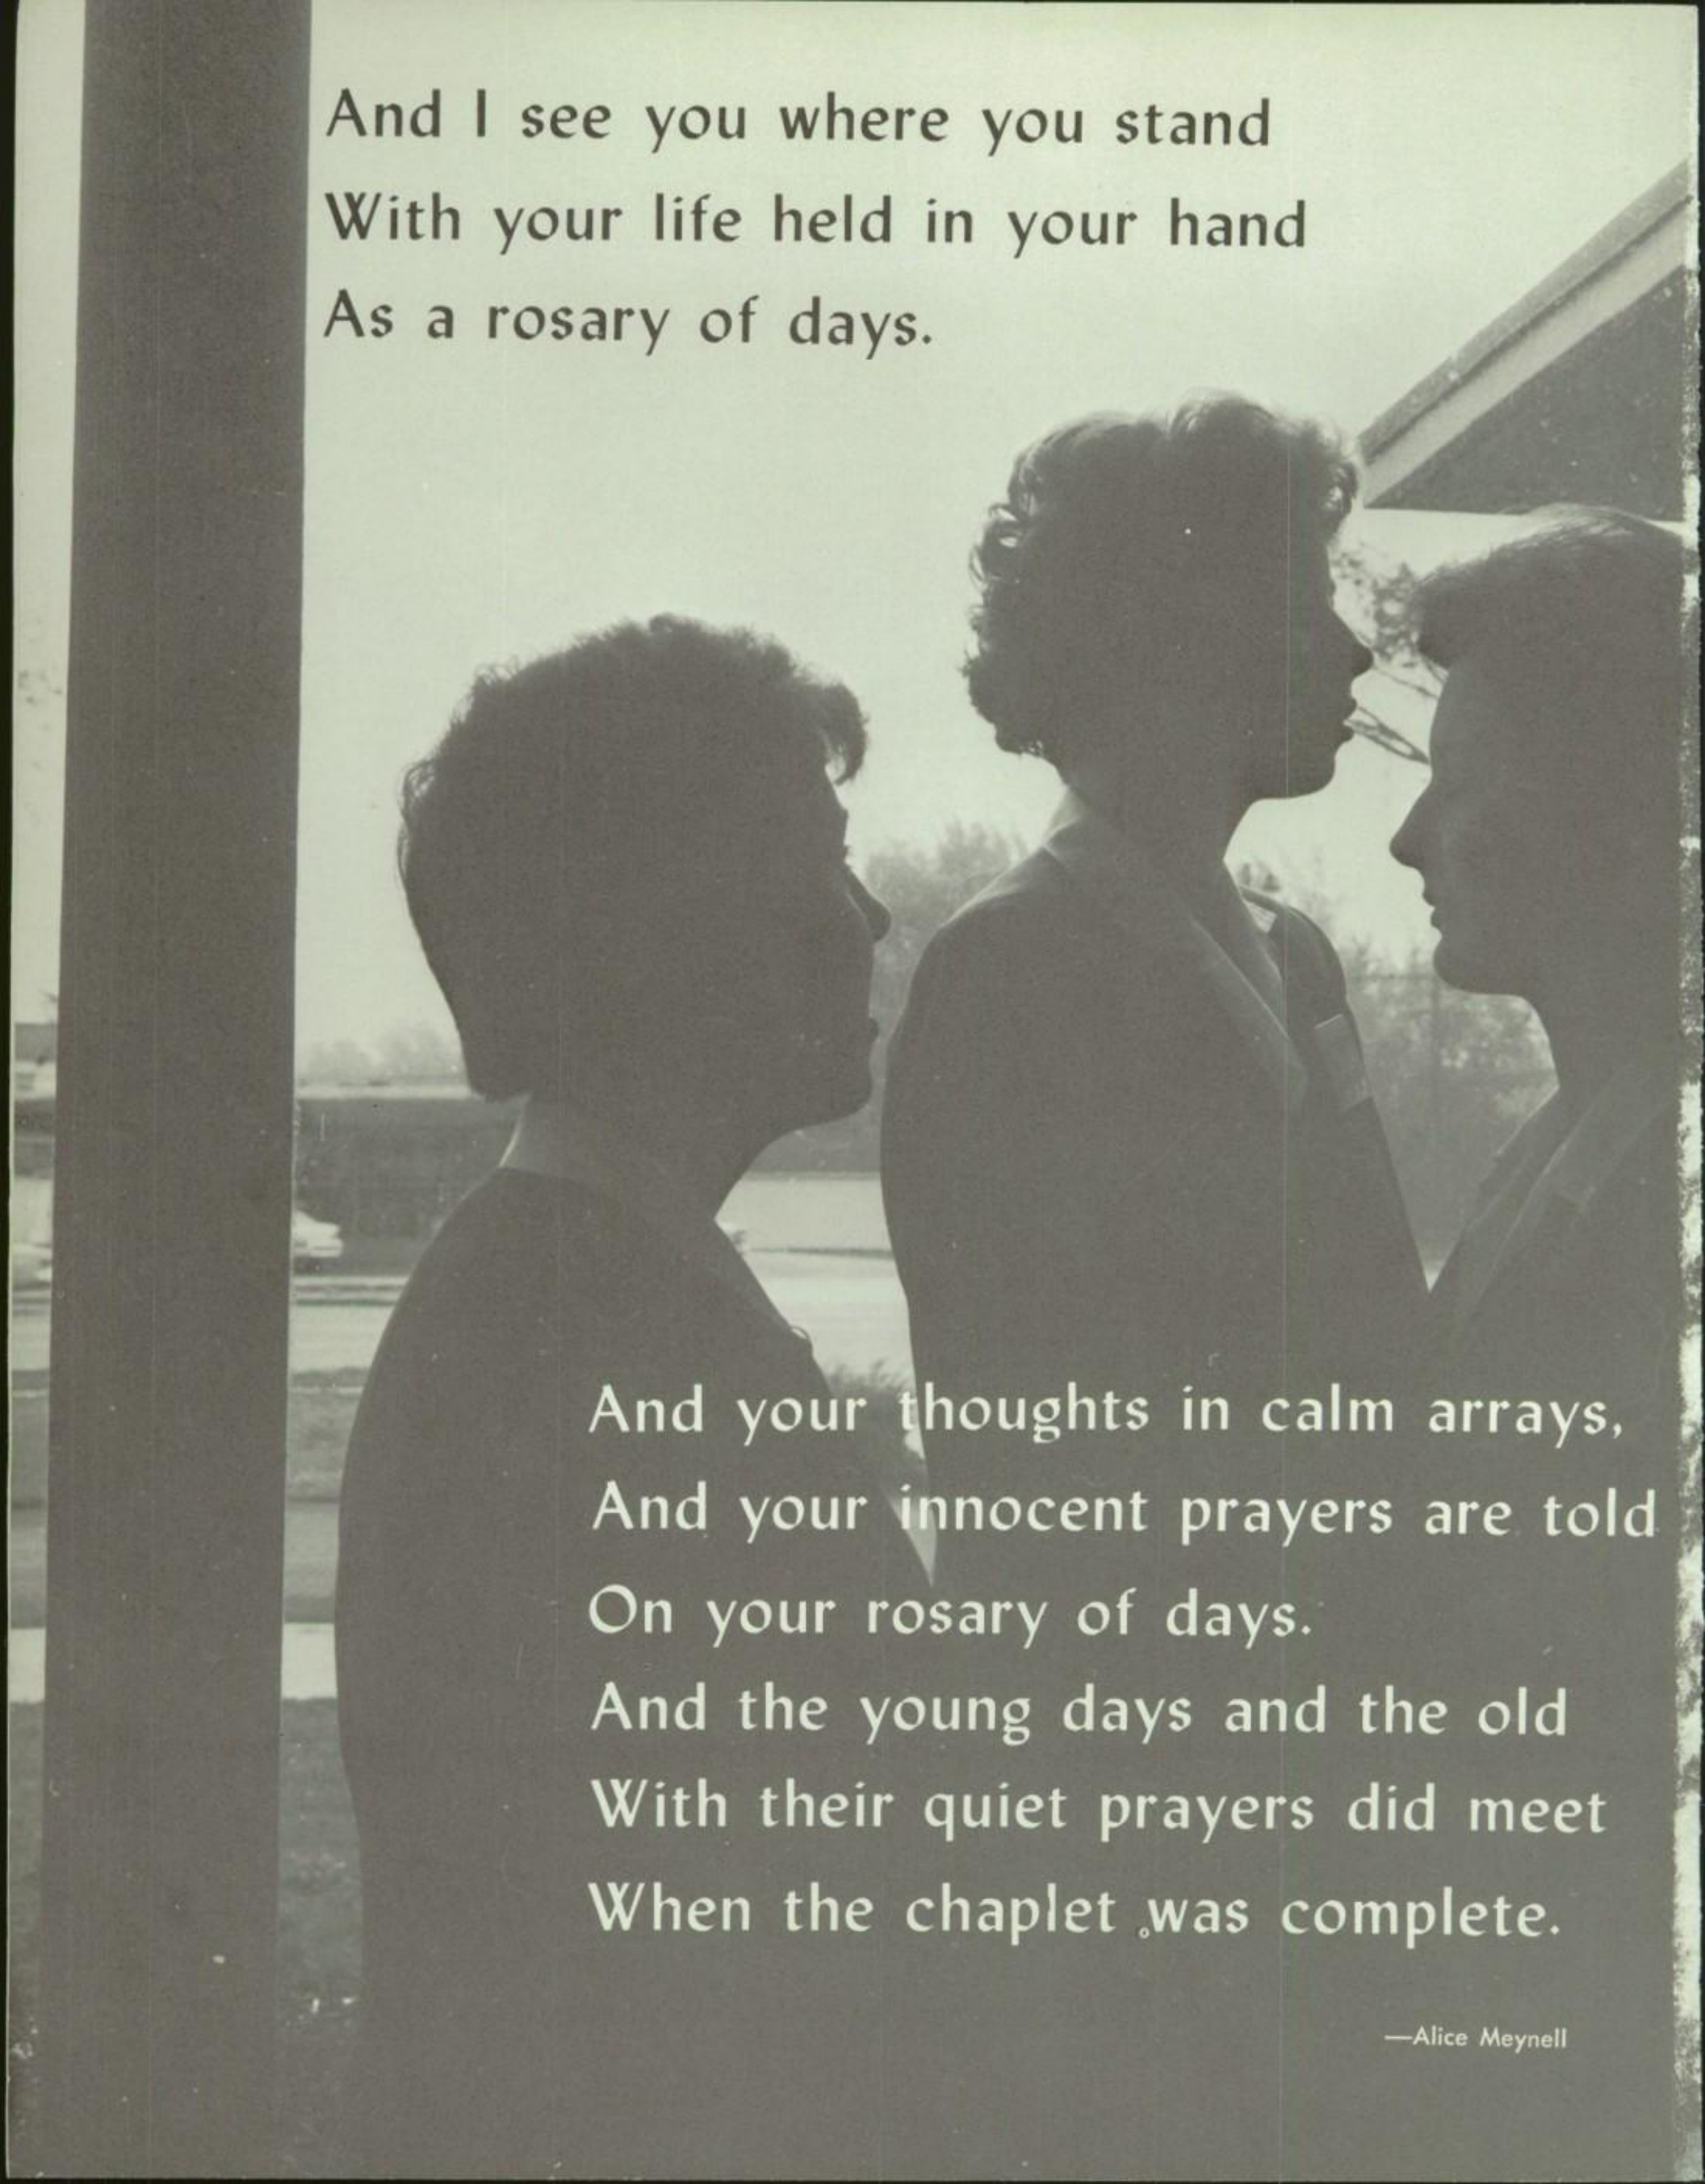
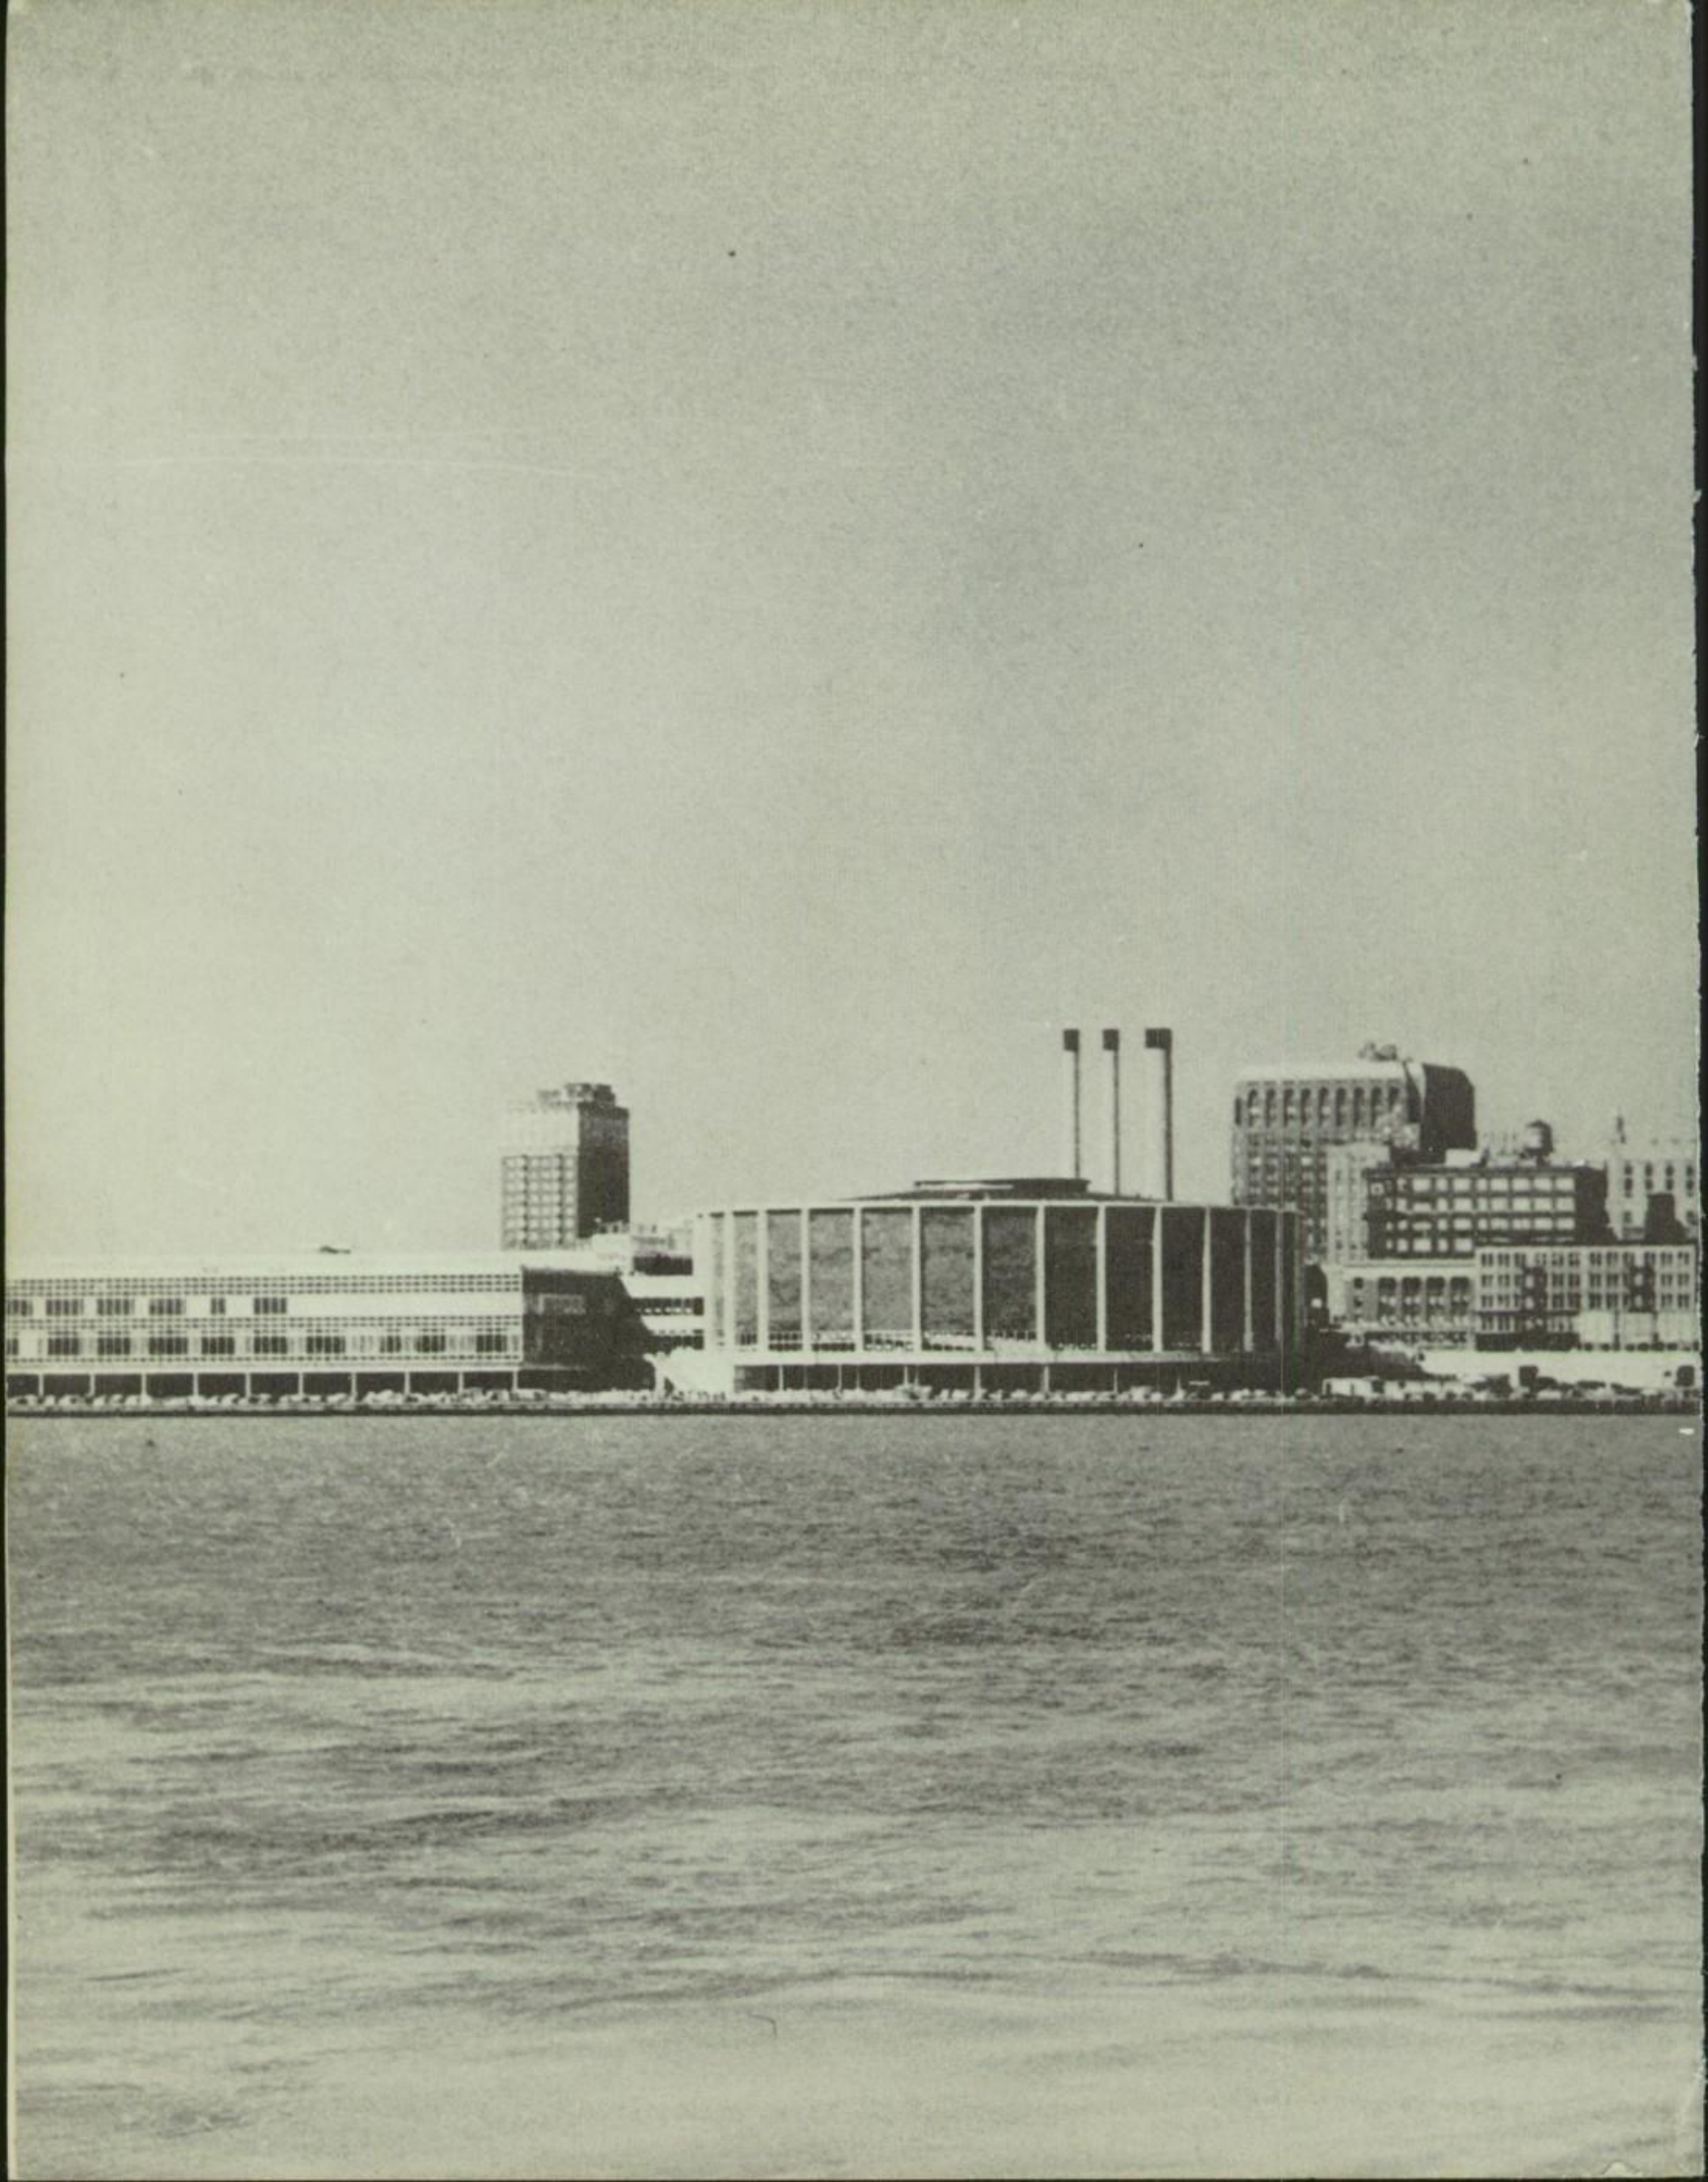
EDWARDS BROTHERS, INC.
Ann Arbor, Michigan



And I see you where you stand
With your life held in your hand
As a rosary of days.

And your thoughts in calm arrays,
And your innocent prayers are told
On your rosary of days.
And the young days and the old
With their quiet prayers did meet
When the chaplet was complete.

—Alice Meynell



. . . and now, farewell !
